

Cars, bikes have fun for everyone

Allison Milke, 13, reached out to get the ring over the cone as Keith Bowman rode through the course. Bowman and Milke did not win the motorcycle game, but they were one of many riders and passengers who tried their hand at what looked like easy games. The winner of the ring toss was Randy Knox of Burlington.

Photos by Tom Betz/The Goodland Daily News

Lyal W. McCormick of Littleton, Colo., brought several cars of a smaller size to the Early Iron Rod Run Saturday. He had a red 1929 Model A that is a one-quarter scale with a polar bear at the wheel. There were also several other small and even smaller cars with bears driving.

A lilac Ford from the '30s was among the vintage cars at the 17th Early Iron Rod Run Saturday on Main. Photo by Sharon Corcoran/The Goodland Daily News

Ken Schultz of Colorado Springs, shined up his 1930 Ford A Sedan at the 17th annual Early Iron Rod Run and Flatlander Fall Festival Saturday.

It was not really planned, but there was a Red Row in front of Central School where five red cars were lined up. The cars were all different Darrell Crank of Colorado Springs had a 1962 406 Ford; Stan Duell of Goodland had his 1989 Corvette; Steve Laughlin of Wray, Colo., had a 1969 Stingray; Jim Landsparger of Broomfield, Colo., had a 1930 Ford; and Jerome and Linda Nauble of Boulder, Colo. had a 1958 Chevy Impala.