

Bulldogs smashed by Weskan at home 52-20

By Jay Kelley
Special to Goodland Daily News
The Brewster High School football team found themselves in a hole too deep to dig out of Friday night and ended up with a 52-20 loss to the visiting Weskan Coyotes.

The Bulldogs first possession found them punting from their own 22 after three plays. The south wind caught the high kick, giving it plenty of hangtime, but little distance and Weskan took over on the Brewster 38.

The Coyotes relied on quickness and a good running attack to carry them to the 12, where misdirection put Landon Funk in the open to receive a Nolan Cox bullet and draw first blood. Cox ran the two point in to make the score 8-0 Weskan with 7:09 left in the quarter.

Brewster's offense ran into trouble again, with blockers unable to pick up on Weskan's defensive schemes. Jacob Falcon was sacked three times in the first half, once each on the first two possessions. After three plays and a punt, Weskan took over on their own 36 with 4:55 left in the first quarter.

Twelve plays later Weskan's Clayton Cox ran for his first touchdown of the night. The conversion failed and Weskan led 14-0 with only seconds left in the first quarter.

Brewster took over on their 25 and got one play off before the quarter ended. Falcon was sacked again on third and six and the Bulldogs were forced to punt on fourth and 13 at their own 21.

Weskan's defensive schemes again frustrated the 'Dawgs and Falcon was forced to scramble before being brought down at the Brewster 25.

A six play drive by Weskan culminated in a six-yard touchdown run by Nolan Cox and a 20-0 Coyote lead with 8:45 left.

Brewster's next drive was aborted after three plays when Sean Swanson was hit as he caught a pass, tipping it up and into the hands of a Weskan defender at the Weskan 36.

Weskan took the ball into the end zone on the next drive, extending their lead to 26-0.

Brewster took over at their own 15 with 4:57 left on the clock, engineering an eight play drive that included two fourth downs. On their own 39, with fourth and five, Falcon broke through the pass rush for a touchdown with 2:22 left.

Swanson ran the two point conversion in to cut the deficit to 26-8.

Brewster's defense stiffened and forced Weskan out after six plays, giving the 'Dawgs the ball on the Weskan 37 with 1:22 left in the half. Two plays later Falcon found Jarrett Carpenter for the second Brewster touchdown of the night.

The two point conversion was no good, but Brewster had cut the lead to 26-14 with only a minute left in the half.

Weskan wasn't out, however. They put together a drive that ended with Nolan Cox finding Jared Myers on second and 15 at the Brewster 22 for a touchdown with nine seconds in the half.

Again, the two point conversion failed and Weskan took a 32-14 lead into half-time.

Weskan opened the second half with another touchdown drive, making their lead 40-14 with 8:42 left in the third quarter.

By now Brewster had made some adjustments on offense, including some shotgun style passing formations that confused the Weskan defenders and some defensive adjustments which put Cox on the run for the rest of the third quarter.

In the fourth quarter Weskan was able to score twice more. The first came off another broken punt that gave the Coyotes the ball on the Brewster 25 and the last was a 65 yard kick return after Brewster scored with 1:23 left.

Brewster's final score was a 44 yard run by Jake Long with 1:39 left on the clock.

"It happens to the best of us," said coach Leland Francis. "For about 12 minutes in the first and second quarter, they couldn't do anything wrong."

The Bulldogs are now 2-2 and will be looking to get back above .500 against Triplains in Brewster on Friday. Game time is 7:30 p.m. Central Time.

Flatlander 5 foot race collects $375 for charity

The second part of the Flatlander 5 Race Series on Saturday raised $375 for the Muscular Dystrophy Association, which brings the total up to $825.

The 25th annual race series, sponsored by Richard Schwasinger and the Goodland High School Decca club, held its first race in July, raising $450. The first race in July was five kilometers, and on Saturday it was five miles.

If five-miles seemed too far to run, people could enter a two-mile walk. A mile run was available, but there were no entries. Kids ran in a half-mile fun run.

The race drew runners from Atwood, Eckley, Colo., and Lamar, Colo. Schwasinger said the money raised will be used to help children in the area with muscular dystrophy, a chronic disease that eats away at a person's muscles. Linda Hopkins of Atwood raised the most money at $130.

"The money raised this time wasn't as much as in previous years," he said, "but it's enough for a good down payment on a wheelchair."

The Grant Junior High cross country team held an exhibition run after the other races, with six girls and five boys running.

The womens' winner of the five-mile race was Mariah Phipps of Goodland with 46 minutes 20 seconds. Julie Rus of Eckley finished in 47:57 and Hopkins 51:43.

John Scheopner came up from Garden City and won the race for the men with 37:16. In the 30-39 age division, Marc Sivori of Atwood finished with 39:03, and Chad Tuttle of Goodland with 39:31. Schwasinger ran in the 40-49 division and finished in 48:19. Mike Mersch came in at 44:42 in the 50 and over bracket.

Lupe Rodriguez entered in the womens' 10 and under division of the two-mile walk and finished in 28:40. Heather Batterton and Arvenia Morris, both of Lamar, finished the walk together in 32:29.

John Cozadd of Goodland finished the walk in 28:25 and Mike Lammers in 28:42.

All the fun run competitors were from Goodland. Hannah Blake won for the girls with 3:14. Kaitlyn Lammers came in with 3:55 and Kate Zelfer 5:54. Blake holds the course record for girls, set at the race in July, at 3:11.

Kalab Keith won for the boys with 3:49 and Matthew Smith finished in 8:33.

In the junior high one-mile exhibition run, Whitney Dautel won for the girls with 6:52. Amber Walls came in at 7:28, Heidi Yonkey 8:27, Tiffany Wing 8:43, Mindi Keith 9:16, Jessica Lu 9:17.

For the boys, Christopher Irvin won with 7:04. Doug Edelman finished with 7:21, Michael Smith 8:33, Cody Engel 9:06 and Andrew Philbrick 9:39.

Season ends with 116 stock cars

Final modifieds' race delayed by rain until Sunday afternoon

The Goodland Daily News

The stock car racing season ended this weekend at the Sherman County Speedway with 116 cars competing in the Flatlander Fall Classic.

The grandstands were packed Friday and Saturday to watch the season blowoff, and many turned up Sunday for an unexpected final day. A little rain fell on the track Saturday night, and the modified stocks postponed their main race.

Admission was free to the public at the Sunday race, said Patsy Gresty, public relations chairman for the Sherman County Stock Car Racing Association, whether they had gone to Saturday night's race or not.

The purses were bigger than any other race of the season with $13,000 awarded to the drivers.

Every car which made it to the main race got at least a small check, Gresty said, but the big money was reserved for the top racers.

The winner of the modified race received $3,000, the stock winner $1,000; bomber $500 and cruiser $300, she said.

The season finale was the last race the racing association will run. They are turning over the reins to L and R Productions, run by Lloyd Koel, a mechanics instructor at the Northwest Kansas Technical College.

The association is not disbanding, Gresty said, it is just stepping back and letting someone else take over. It will be ready to take the races back over if it has to. Gresty said the Classic was a great end to a great season.

"We want to thank everybody who supported our track," she said. "We couldn't have done it without the racers and the fans."

Results from the race this weekend are:

Three named Big 12 players of the week

DALLAS (AP)—Texas Tech quarterback Kliff Kingsbury, Missouri cornerback R.J. Jones, Oklahoma punt returner-defensive back Antonio Perkins and Texas running back-punt returner Selvin Young have been named offensive, defensive and co-special teams Big 12 players of the week.

Kingsbury, of New Braunfels, set

Big 12 and Texas Tech single-game touchdown marks with six touchdown passes against New Mexico in a 49-0 victory.

Jones, of Mountain View, Calif., tied the MU and Big 12 game records for interceptions with three in a 44-7 win over Troy State.

Perkins, of Lawton, Okla., had an 82-yard punt return for a touchdown—his second return for a touchdown this season — in OU's win over South Florida.

Perkins also made a pass interception as a defensive back with a return of 28 yards.

Perkins had three tackles defensively in the game, as well as one forced fumble and two passes deflected.

5.5085% Annual Percentage Rate

At 15 year, 80% loan to value ratio at the 9-20-02 interest rate of 5.500% (5.5085% APR*) is a great deal at Western State Bank.

APR* Annual percentage rate
APR calculated using a $70,000 loan with fees and 15 days of interest.
Payments of principal and interest for this typical example would be 180 monthly payments of $571.96. Loans with less than 20% equity may require mortgage insurance.
