Harold Winston

Harold Winston, 78, a rural mail carrier and farmer from St. Francis, died Sunday, Sept. 27, 2002, at the Cheyenne County Hospital.

He was born Oct. 22, 1923, in Parks, Neb., the third son of Daniel Morgan and Ruby Elverda Winston. He moved with his family to a farm in northwest Cheyenne County when he was a small boy.

He spent his early years herding cattle and raising crops, working from daylight to dark. He and his brother Burman were daredevils in and out of the saddle, producing many stories to retell throughout his life.

On Sept. 23, 1944, he married Betty Wiggins in Goodland before being shipped overseas to serve in World War II. He was in the 18th Armored Battalion and fought in General George Patton's Third Army and the First and Ninth Armies in France, Luxembourg, Belgium and Germany.

He was wounded in action April 9, 1944, and returned home with several medals and many more stories. Harold and Betty lived in St. Francis for the rest of their lives.

He was a rural mail carrier, farmer and school bus driver before retiring in 1981. He spent many hours at the Riverside Golf Course and at the bowling alley with his family and friends.

In 1999, Harold and Betty moved from their home of 44 years to a smaller retirement home. His health declined due to chronic emphysema.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Kevin (Barbara) Winston of Goodland and Steve (Vickie) Winston of Broken Arrow, Okla.; two daughters, Kimberley (Ron) Shields of Goodland and Shana Williams of Chattanooga, Tenn.; and a sister, Wilma (Carl) Hendricks of St. Francis.

Festival, church activities make week busy

Another week flew away without really touching base. I have had some days during this time that I would rather have stayed in bed but kept on going.

Saturday was a weird day, to say the least. I got my church work done on Friday, as I knew the traffic would be heavy around the church on Saturday. There were many cars for the garage/bake sale at the Handy House making parking space scarce.

Lillian and I went to the Hall benefit breakfast at the high school and then went to the new doughnut place. I finally parked at the church rectory, and we walked to the store. After a 10-minute wait, we each made a couple of minor purchases and walked back to the car.

We got home, put a load of clothes in the washer and leisurely had a cup of coffee while reading the morning paper. When the phone rang, my greeting was "Did you forget something?"

Boy, did I make tracks to take care of that commitment. The rest of the morning I finished my washing and just generally lazed around. About 1:30, my other neighbor called and asked me to get her some groceries. Out to Wal-Mart I went, where the parking and in-store traffic was a madhouse.

I ended the day by going to a surprise birthday party to help Clara Marie Fixsen celebrate her 80th birthday. Her daughter, Lucille Bose, and her family from Nebraska had arranged the affair. Neighbors and various friends showed up, much to the surprise of Mrs. Fixsen.

It worked since she thought the kids had come for the Flatlander Fall Festival. Thanks for the invitation, and happy birthday to Mrs. Fixsen.

I've neither any birthdays nor anniversaries to announce. I'm sure there are some but not known to me. Best wishes to all who did have one.

A couple of deaths that had connections to residents, current and former, are those of Glen Rigor and Harvey Zimmerman. My sincere sympathy to all their families, friends and other relatives.

Sadly, a young man, Santos Lopez of Kanorado, lost his life in an accidental shooting. Sincere condolences to this man's family during these next several months of dealing with his death.

I have been battling a cold and laryngitis. Several at the center are also fighting colds. I've kept a very low profile for several days and hope I can shake it in the next few days.

Speaking of the center, we've gotten a good number of new diners. Give us a try; several have told me they were really surprised and delighted to see the meals served and the other activities. There are no dues, no membership fees, just the recommended donation of $2.25 per meal. Thanks to all of those coming, and welcome to all newcomers.

Needless to say, I've stayed away from visiting either the hospital or Wheat Ridge, as I didn't think they would like for me to walk around and expose patients/residents to this crud.

I have been trying to finish this column for a couple of days but have really felt tough and spent afternoons doing nothing but napping.

It is later Tuesday evening as I'm trying to get this done. I don't see any notes, so I will close. It is thundering, spitting rain and blowing rather hard outside.

I hope you don't get this cold that is making the rounds. Take care until next week.
