Cowgirls finish second at Colby tennis tourney

The Goodland Cowgirls finished fourth in a junior varsity tennis meet in Colby Saturday, Oct. 5, had a second place finish in doubles and a fourth in singles in a junior varsity meet Monday in Tribune and tied for fourth and fifth in varsity action Thursday in Scott City.

Trista Lalicker finished fourth in no. 1 singles in Colby, and the no. 2 doubles team of Kali Rietcheck and Megan Stefan finished fourth in the meet. The team earned 10 points for the fourth place finish.

In Tribune, Rietcheck and Stefan were second in no. 2 doubles, and Gracie Langness was fourth in no. 2 singles.

The team tied for fourth with 10 points in Scott City. Jennifer Mentzer and Megan McCall were second in no. 1 doubles with a 3-1 record. They defeated teams from Ashland, Scott City and Tribune and lost to Ulysses in the finals 6-3.

Michelle Kibel and Leslie Knittig were seventh in no. 2 doubles with a 1-3 record. They defeated a team from Cimarron.

In no. 2 singles, Langness had a 1-3 record, defeating Fry of Colby 6-4. Two varsity team members were unable to attend due to Homecoming activities.

Regional tennis will be Monday at Pratt.

Cowgirls earn medals at Syracuse

The Cowgirls golf team earned two junior varsity medals and had a 14th place finisher in varsity at the Syracuse Invitational Thursday and tied Colby for sixth place in the team rankings.

Kayla Rasure was 14th overall in varsity golf with 52 strokes. Ana McClung and Sami Philbrick had 63; Kelsi Leiker, 71; Emily Burkett, 64; and Ashlyn Krall, 70.

For junior varsity, Julie Leiker won the sixth place medal with 66 strokes, and Jenna Deines won the ninth place medal with 78 strokes.

Coach Connie Livengood said the girls had a lot of personal bests in the meet.

Syracuse won with a team score of 181; Lakin was second with 188; Ulysses was third with 196; Garden City was fourth with 226; and Sublette was fifth with 232.

Goodland and Colby both had 242 to tie for fifth. Hugoton and Holcomb competed but did not have team scores.

The Cowgirls will compete at regionals Monday at Lakin.

Snake dance highlights parade, pep rally

Nuggets center has hip surgery

DENVER (AP)—Denver Nuggets center Marcus Camby underwent surgery on his hip Thursday night and the team said he would be out indefinitely.

Team spokesman Tommy Sheppard said the 6-foot-11 Camby had a tear in the cartilage that lines the hip joint repaired by Dr. Marc J. Philippon at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center while the team was losing its exhibition opener at Dallas, 91-83.

Camby was acquired by Denver in an offseason trade with the New York Knicks. He played in only 29 games last season with New York primarily because of the injury to his right hip. Denver has been cautious with Camby during practice and sat him out during the second half of its Blue-White scrimmage Tuesday.

Although Camby said he felt fine afterward, team physician Dr. Steve Traina determined on Wednesday that the 29-year-old needed the surgery. It was not clear whether Camby aggravated the same injury that sidelined him most of last season or sustained a new tear.

The Nuggets are unsure how long Camby will be out. General manager Kiki Vandeweghe expressed hopes of Camby rejoining the team by December but he said the Nuggets don't have a timetable for his return.
