

Flu shot clinic at Brewster Senior Center averages a shot a minute

On Tuesday, the 15th, there were 57 flu shots given at the Brewster Senior Center. Although the flu shot clinic got off to a slow start, things went as smooth as clock work. There was an average of a shot a minute.

Plus, there was a lot of people visiting, even one person from Denver who decided to get his shot in Kansas.

Kudos to Kathy, Kay and Gwen from the Thomas County Health Department for their cooperation and efficiency.

Believe those who may have missed making it to the senior center this month can come to a repeat of this service next month.

On Tuesday afternoon, there were several that came in to wish Inace Parker a very happy 95th birthday. During the morning, all three of Inace's children arrived to make the day special for their mother. Bud and Peggy Parker and Norma Jean (Parker) Hammond, all of Denver, and Merle and Sandy Parker of Oakley showed up with a huge cake and other festive items to share with those that stopped in.

Inace said this was her best birthday since the 90th. We told her the really big one would be in five more years. I am sure Inace will be on hand to greet those of us that are still around. Anyway, she had a great time this year.

Roger and I were able to make a quick trip to Hays on Sunday after church to help our granddaughter, Corinne, get ready for her eighth birthday on Wednesday.

We enjoyed the time with Beth and David, and we got to watch Nathaniel play football on Sunday afternoon. Yep, he made a touchdown!

After the game, we enjoyed supper at the Great Wall Restaurant. It was a good trip, and now we can start making plans for Thanksgiving.

Can you believe how fast time is moving? I won't even think of reminding you that Christmas is only two months away. Oops! I guess I just did, didn't I?

Homecoming was exciting, and I am sure no one left the football game early. The pep rally was full of school spirit and all kinds of talented activities. There were certainly a lot of young people representing classes Kindergarten through senior.

Congratulations to the Bulldogs, both football and volleyball, on their winning seasons.

Duane and Judy Headley have a new grandson, Cole Owen Moore, son of Kent and Lori (Headley) Moore of Greeley. He has an older brother, Spencer, waiting at home.

Several area people are having some health problems, and I am praying for a speedy recovery for them. I just talked to Betty Jo Carpenter about her mother, Cornelia Baird. She is back in Colby's hospital and holding her own.

One thing Betty told me that Cornelia especially enjoyed was a visit from her pet dog. She said that perked her up for a while.

I'm not going to say where the visit was or when, but I think it is nice that she could spend some time with a "special friend." Cornelia has all her family around her, including Betty Jo, and Erma Palmgren and her sons, Bruce and Ben. I know that means a lot to her.

Another person who has been ailing is Eve Wells. She is home and getting around a little better all the time, so perhaps she will soon be on the go again.

The senior center received a note from Frances Jones saying she is doing well and is looking forward to returning home soon.

Word has it Doris Mayer is doing well following knee surgery earlier this week. I hope she continues to do well and is soon feeling better than she has in a long time.

Although I don't know her very well, I was sorry to hear the senior center director in Colby is having some health problems. Deb Koon has been a very busy and active leader, and we wish her a speedy return to full energy and health.

Seems there are many having challenges to their health, and I know when someone is having health problems, it's time for their friends to support them with prayer and letting them know they are thought about.

I was sorry to hear about Darral Craft and wish to extend sympathy to his family. He died Sunday, Oct. 13, and services were held on Friday the 18th.

That's about all for this week. I just want to remind everyone that the United Methodist Women Turkey Supper is just around the corner on Wednesday, Nov. 6. I know there is no other turkey that tastes as good as that first big meal, and it's a tradition in Brewster that the turkey supper is a gourmet delight. I can hardly wait!

Singer to perform in St. Francis Sunday

Ann Zimmerman will perform at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Cheyenne Theatre in St. Francis. A Kansas singer, Zimmerman examines the adventure, joy, tragedy and comedy of life with her voice, piano and guitar.

She won the 2002 Flint Hills Gathering songwriting contest and has performed in New York, Seattle, Boston, Dallas and Alaska, turning each audience into a backup choir. Zimmerman blends old and new folk songs, cabaret numbers and her own creations.

She grew up in Salina, singing folk songs with her family to the strums of her mother's Autoharp. She has been an elementary teacher, a bank clerk, a plumbing catalog editor, an agricultural intern, a student and graduate of Harvard Law School, president of a Kansas environmental organization and a long-time legal aid lawyer.

She lives near Salina on a horseboarding farm and divides her time between legal mediation and music.

Zimmerman was selected to perform for the dedication of the Tallgrass Prairie National Preserve and has appeared annually at the world-renowned Land Institute near Salina. She plays festivals, farmers markets, fancy theaters and smoky dives and has shared the stage with many folk musicians.
