today in history

Nov. 1, 1902: C.A. Brannon and W.E. Dickenson became involved in a dispute over a business matter so acrimonious a fight followed. Both parties were arrested.

Nov. 2, 1902: Brannon badly beaten. Dickenson claims assault with a hammer and acted purely in self defense. Judge Leonard placed both under $25 bond for breach of peace.

card shower

David Hans Schilling, formerly of Goodland, is celebrating 90 years of life. In remembrance of this special milestone, David will be honored with a 90th birthday bash and card shower from 2-4 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 9, 2002, at the Westy Community Care Home in Westmoreland. While David requests no gifts, he asks to be blessed with your presence and your memories of the times you've spent together.

Cards may be mailed to David Schilling, c/o Misty Bearman, 105 E

Valley No. 19, Wamego, Kan. 66547.

food drive

Harvest America Corporation, 212 E. 17th, needs non-perishable food, personal hygiene items and household supplies to distribute to low income, elderly and disabled people in Sherman County. Goodland broadcaster elected to state board

A Goodland man was elected as a director of the Kansas Association of Broadcasters for 2003, and a Goodland radio station and a Colby radio station won awards from the association.

Marty Melia, owner of KLOE/KKCI/KWGB of Goodland, was elected as a director of the association at its annual meeting.

"Goodland Great American Outdoor Trails Radio Magazine" on

KWGB was first place for broadcasting excellence among public affairs programs.

Dr. Gooden's commercial on KXXX in Colby won in the humorous commercial category, and Joe Vyzourek of KXXX tied for second in the D.J. Personality Aircheck category with Wade Gerstner of KMZA of Seneca and Michael Luskey of KJIL of Meade.

Dinner theater to feature cowboy and western music

The Oberlin Arts and Humanities Commission will sponsor a dinner theater at 6:30 p.m. Central Time Saturday, Nov. 9, at The Gateway in Oberlin. Featured will be Jim and Jeanne Martin, the Rockin' M Wranglers.

The Colorado musical duo will perform a full range of cowboy and western music, from the traditional trail songs of the working cowboy to the silver screen classics.

They also sing compositions about today's cowboys and their ever-popular western lifestyle. The duo's blended voices harmonize during their performance, which will include championship yodeling.

They accompany each other with rhythm guitar and bass guitar and the performance will include their particular brand of family-style cowboy humor. They have performed throughout the United States, including a program in Rexford in February.

Tickets are available by calling Mary at (785) 475-3329 or Ella at (785) 475-3557. A steak dinner will be served. Reservations must be made by Wednesday.
