Surgeons gone for holidays Prime time

By Patty Decker

The Colby Free Press There will be no surgeon available at the Goodland and Colby hospitals for the next six days while the regular doctors are on vacation, Colby officials confirmed today.

The holiday plans affect both general surgery and Caesarean-section deliveries for mothers unable to have a natural delivery.

The doctors cover both hospitals. "The primary impact will be on Csections," said Kevan Trenkle, chief financial officer at Citizens Medical Center in Colby and acting administrator while Michael Boyles is on vacation. Any surgical cases, he said, wil be transferred to the closest facility, probably be in Hays.

Trenkle said both Dr. Duncan Davis, general surgeon, and Dr. David Younger, who does Caesarian sections, were away for the holidays.

Dr. LaDonna Regier, who is the hospital's chief of staff and a physician at Colby Medical and Surgical Center, said she believes it is a very bad situation for both obstetric patients and emergency room patients alike.

"It's unfair to these (obstetric) patients and it definitely places them and anyone with an emergency in jeopardy," she said.

Although Regier does not handle obstetrics, she did say that her associate, Dr. Victor Hildyard, also at Colby Medical and Surgical Center, does deliver babies.

"We tried to get a locum (replace- about the lack of surgical coverage on was with patients and unavailable for ment) for about two months to cover Friday and he agrees with Regier that comment.

Conversely, Scott Focke, who is the manager of the Family Center for Health Care, said while this is not the best situation, he disagreed that it is dangerous.

There are a lot of hospital facilities up and down the Interstate without surgical coverage, he said.

BAGHDAD, Iraq—Iraq insists it is hiding no nuclear, chemical or biological weapons, though U.N. inspectors have called its arms declaration wanting and American and British officials have called it a lie.

"We have told the world we are not producing these kind of weapons, but it seems that the world is drugged, absent or in a weak position," President Saddam Hussein said Sunday during talks with visiting Belarus envoy Nikolai Ivanchenko.

Saddam's scientific adviser Amir al-Saadi told reporters in Baghdad Sunday that Iraq had answered many of the questions about its weapons program in a declaration to the United Nations earlier this month or in interviews officials have given U.N. inspectors who have been working here since last month.

Al-Saadi accused the United States and Britain of ignoring Iraq's replies and making judgments before U.N. experts could fully examine the Iraqi Strummer's death was announced on his official Web site. "Joe Strummer died yesterday," said the simple statement. "Our condolences to Luce and the kids, family and friends.'

TILLAMOOK, Ore. — Police were searching for a man whose wife and three young children were found dead in the snowy woods, but they weren't sure whether the man they are seeking is a victim or a suspect.

The case was being investigated as a homicide, though the causes of death had not been determined and authorities had not ruled out a murder-suicide, Tillamook County Sheriff Todd Anderson said Sunday.

Rene'E Morris, 31, and her children, Bryant, 10, Alexis, 8, and 4-year-old Jonathan had been reported missing Saturday from their Portland home, Anderson said. Their bodies were found Saturday.

"Why don't they let the specialized organs of the United Nations get on with their task?" al-Saadi asked at a televised news conference.

"We don't even have an objection if the CIA itself comes and joins the inspection teams to show them the places which they claim have something," he said.

CARACAS, Venezuela — Leaders of a strike aimed at forcing Hugo Chavez from office said they were not intimidated by the president's threats to fire striking managers of the state oil monopoly and vowed the protest would continue through Christmas if necessary.

"Cost it what may cost, we will continue with this strike," Carlos Ortega, the president of Venezuela's largest trade union confederation, said Sunday. "The authoritarianism and violence of the Chavez regime will not force us to retreat."

Ortega insisted citizens were "resolved to spend Christmas in the streets" protesting Chavez's rule.

Chavez, who has already sacked four executives at state oil company Petroleos de Venezuela SA, vowed more dismissals and said strikers would be prosecuted. The stoppage, which entered its 22nd day Monday, has paralyzed an industry that provides more than 70 percent of the country's export revenue and is the fifth largest supplier to the world.

"We have begun to recover PDVSA and we will start a cleansing in PDVSA," Chavez said during his weekly television and radio show Sunday. "Those who didn't show up for work ... well, they will be fired."

Retailers had a good start to the season with a better-than-expected sales during the Thanksgiving weekend, but sales subsequently were surprisingly weak. Analysts say consumers have cut back on their spending because of worries about job security and the economy's uncertain recovery.

Shoppers over the weekend were searching for the best price, and retailers were accommodating them with two-for-one specials and other deep discounts.

The National Retail Federation, an industry group, was holding on to its optimism, and to hopes that procrastinators will give stores a boost. The NRF estimated that 35 percent of consumers hadn't completed their shopping as of last Monday.

PASCAGOULA, Miss. — In his first public remarks since resigning as Senate GOP leader, Sen. Trent Lott confessed he had "only myself to hospital, according to an Army stateblame" for the racially charged scandal that brought him down.

But the senator also alluded to unnamed political enemies who have been lying in wait for a chance to pounce — and found it $2 \frac{1}{2}$ weeks ago, when Lott's praise of Sen. Strom Thurmond's 1948 segregationist run for president ignited a firestorm of criticism.

"A lot of people in Washington have been trying to nail me for a long time," Lott said in an interview Sunday with The Associated Press. "When you're from Mississippi, when you're conservative and when you're a Christian, there are a lot of people that don't like that. But I fell into their trap and so I have only myself to blame.'

Talking outside his home here, Lott reiterated his insistence that comments at Thurmond's 100th birthday party were not malicious, and repeated his pledge to turn the experience into positive action as he finishes his term in the Senate.

"I have a job to do," he said. "I believe that my experience, my knowledge of having been in the leadership

Police are looking for Edward Mor-Dodge Caravan. Neighbors of the victims said the husband was a landscaper who had recently begun a job at a Target store.

Anderson said hunters found the first body in Tillamook State Forest, and called authorities from a convenience store. The Oregon State Police forensics team arrived and found the other three in the near vicinity.

ELIZABETH, N.J. — The family of a U.S. soldier killed during a firefight in Afghanistan mourned privately Sunday, with a note taped to their front door saying, "Please respect our privacy." Neighbors described Sgt. Steven Checo as a good son.

The 22-year-old paratrooper in the 82nd Airborne Division was shot Saturday during a gun battle in the eastern Afghanistan town of Shkhin.

Checo died during surgery at a field ment from Fort Bragg, N.C., the home of the 82nd Airborne.

Checo was the first U.S. combat death in Afghanistan since August, and the 17th American killed in a hostile situation there since the war on terror began late last year.

Checo's uncle, Gilbert Checo, said relatives were devastated by the death of the young man, who was living his dream of serving in the armed forces.

A Mass was performed for Checo on Sunday morning, said the Rev. Ronald Newland of St. Mary's of the Assumption Roman Catholic Church, where the family attends services.

WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON — Republican senators are gathering by telephone to elect a new leader they hope will help repair the damage that Trent Lott's racially charged remarks have had on GOP efforts to court minority voters.

Sen. Bill Frist of Tennessee, a White House favorite, emerged last week as the clear choice to replace Lott, who resigned from the leadership under pressure Friday.
