today in history

Jan. 11, 1903: Mr. Ichabod Warner, county treasurer, has remitted the balance of the state tax for 1902, and Sherman County does not owe the state a cent. Few counties are in as good shape financially as Sherman County.

Jan. 12, 1903: Pleasant Home news — Real estate changed hands quite a bit Wednesday without consent of the owners.

Jan. 13, 1903: Tuesday, the county commissioners purchased the Burroughs registering account-tant, which has been on trial at the courthouse for several months. The machine is provided with a keyboard and is operated similar to a typewriter.

It will add, subtract and multiply, the totals being immediately reached by working a lever. As the keys are struck, a record is made on a strip of paper by type impressions through an ink ribbon. The “arithmometer” is a very great aid to the county clerk and county treasurer in work on tax rolls. The price of the machine is $250, but a less up-to-date machine, purchased when R.J. Jones was treasurer, was turned in for $50, so the new one cost $200.

obituary

Velma Jamison

Velma Louise Jamison, 69, a Henderson, Texas, homemaker, formerly of Goodland, died Thursday, Dec. 12, 2002, after a short illness.

She was born Feb. 27, 1933, in Idabelle, Okla., the daughter of Harry and Lena Mae Seay. She married Dewayne Jamison on Feb. 25, 1949, in Wheeler, Texas. Mrs. Jamison enjoyed being a homemaker and lived on a farm for most of her life. She loved feeding and caring for all the animals and especially enjoyed watching the baby calves grow.

She enjoyed working side by side with her husband in the garden in the evenings and having family and friends gather at her home for a meal she prepared. The Jamisons lived in

Summer wedding planned

Laurie Scott and Mark Carmichael of Goodland plan to marry in the summer of 2004 in Goodland.

Rodney and Susan Scott of Goodland are the bride-to-be’s parents, and Kevin and Gina Carmichael of Goodland are the prospective groom’s.

Carl and Shirley Bowen and Earle and Shirley Scott, all of Goodland, are her grandparents. Gary and Lonnie Newell of Goodland and Jim and Pat Carmichael of Laramie, Wyo., are his.

Melva Stephens and Harry and Doris Newell, all of Goodland, are his great-grandparents.

The bride graduated from Goodland high school in 2001 and from the Level I nursing program at Seward County Community College in 2002. She is in the Level II nursing program at Colby Community College and will graduate in May of 2003.

The groom graduated from Goodland High School in 2002 and is enrolled in the business management program at the University of Nebraska at Kearney.

November’s ‘Damsel in Distress’ asks for payback

The name of this is “Turn about is fair play” or “What goes around, comes around.” Thursday at noon, I accidentally locked my keys in the senior center. It was a day that the grocery store, where we keep an extra set of keys, was closed, and Joyce Crabtree, who has a key, was out of town on an errand.

When Joyce returned, she opened the center, and I was relating to some of the ladies what had happened. Frances Jones, who had been in the Nov. 27 column when she locked her keys and cell phone in her house, was listening and then said, “I guess that ought to get in the paper.”

Well, Frances, you’re right. So, anyone else have any “lost key” stories to relate?

Don and Becky Luckert and other family members are planning on attending the installation of Marla Luckert to the Kansas Supreme Court today in Topeka. Marla is the daughter of William and Ione (Rohr) Luckert, formerly of Goodland, and the wife of Kenneth Morse. I am certain she will have a lot of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends attending to wish her well in this honor.

Lila Pfalser, wife of Gene Pfalser, of Ponca City, Okla., had hip surgery Wednesday at the Stillwater Medical Center, Box 2408, Stillwater, Okla. 74076. Lila and Gene are former residents of Brewster, and I am sure she would appreciate a card from her friends in this area. She is doing well.

Oliver and Associates will be at the senior center at 1 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 12, to present a program on insurance for long term care. This is an informative meeting that will be useful in planning for future convalescence care. Be sure to mark your calendars, and all are welcome to attend.
