Lady Wildcats advance at Liberty League tourney

By Brenda Kirkham
The Goodland Daily News

It wasn't pretty, but it still goes down as a win.

Although the 55-20 score indicates the Wallace County Lady Wildcats dominated the Jennings Coyotes, Coach Dan Shupe said there is a lot of room for improvement.

The Wildcats held the Coyotes to just one point in the first half Monday night in the Western Kansas Liberty League tournament. Jennings finally made a free throw in the second quarter to go into the locker room at the half trailing 30-1.

Wildcat Darci Siebert led all scorers with 19 points. The girls had 19 steals, with Christy David leading the way with five. This is the second win for the Wildcats since school resumed after Christmas break. They defeated Healy Friday night. Monday night's win takes Wallace County to a record of 3-4 this season, with two of those coming after Christmas.

Ashley Bruce had nine points, Renee Rains eight points, Sarah Hill seven, Christy David four points and three assists, and Brodie Williams two points and led the team with four assists. Brandi Bertrand, Lexie Bellamy and Charlie Short all had two points.

Shupe said the Wildcats have their work cut out for them as they go up against a veteran Greeley County team tonight in Brewster. The Jackrabbits returned most of their players from last season's roster, which took them to the Class 1A state tournament. The game will be played at 5 p.m. Mountain Time.

Sharon Springs boys lose tight game with Warriors

For the second time in their last two games, the Wallace County Wildcats took their game to overtime Monday.

Also for the second time, they came out on the wrong end of the score in a 60-56 loss to Grinnell in the first round of the Western Kansas Liberty League basketball tournament in Brewster.

Grady Fischer recorded seven blocked shots during the game, but his defensive effort wasn't enough to shut down the Warriors.

The Wildcats should be getting used to the drama of overtime, since they also took the Healy Eagles to overtime in a loss Friday night.

The loss to Grinnell dropped the Wildcats to a record of 2-6 for the season.

Fischer led Wallace County with 19 points along with 16 total rebounds. But the Wildcats provided too many opportunities by giving the Warriors 21 turnovers in the game. The Wildcats were just 7-of-19 from the free throw line.

man that shot clock violations are not reviewable.

"I saw it (was late)," Sampson said. "It doesn't do you a lot of good right now, does it?"

The victory was the 11th in a row for Oklahoma State (13-1, 2-0 Big 12) and came in Eddie Sutton's 400th game as the Cowboys' coach.

Oklahoma (10-3, 1-1) shot just 32.7 percent. Hollis Price and Ebi Ere, each averaging 18 points, scored six each and combined to shoot 4-for-24 from the field.

Oklahoma State shot just under 40 percent from the field. Leading scorer Tony Allen had 11 points, six below his average, and didn't score in the second half.

Oklahoma twice led by as many as seven in the first half, but it was a one-point margin at halftime. The Sooners' biggest lead in the second half was four points; Oklahoma State's was three.

"It was like two heavyweight fighters slugging it out," Sutton said. "It reminded me of when I first got here, we had a couple games with Kansas like this. You didn't worry just about getting a good shot, you worried about getting a shot."

Williams finished with 16 points. Ivan McFarlin scored 11, all in the second half, and grabbed 14 rebounds.

Freshman Kevin Bookout led the Sooners with 14 points and 11 rebounds. Quannas White had 10 points.

"The best players didn't play good for us tonight," Price said. "It was going to come down to the end of the game. They found a way to get a basket at the end and we fell short."

McFarlin gave the Cowboys a 46-43 lead with a tip-in at the 1:43 mark. Price sank a free throw with 1:17 left, then hit a short jumper in the lane with 40 seconds remaining to tie it at 46.

After an Oklahoma State timeout, Williams dribbled alone near midcourt before driving inside against De' Angelo Alexander and putting up his short jumper.

Sutton said the Cowboys had planned to get the ball to McFarlin, but the Sooners had the play defended. Williams then had the green light to try to create something.

"He's a gutty little player," Sutton said. "There's no one on our team I'd rather have at the line or have take the last shot than Victor."

Oklahoma threw a full-length pass on its final try and got the ball to Ere in the left corner, but his 3-point shot hit the side of the backboard and Cowboy fans swarmed the court.

"Sometimes games come down to breaks," Sampson said. "When you go 7-for-15 from the free-throw line, sometimes you make your own breaks."
