Gunman kills American

By the Associated Press INTERNATIONAL

KUWAIT CITY — At least one gunman opened fire today on a vehicle carrying two American civilians near a U.S. military base, killing one and critically wounding the other in what the U.S. Embassy called a terrorist attack.

"We condemn this terrorist incident, which has tragically cost the life of an innocent American citizen," said U.S. Ambassador to Kuwait Richard Jones.

The victims were both civilian contractors working for the U.S. military based in Kuwait, said Embassy spokesman John Moran.

Moran said the two American men were inside their vehicle on Highway 85 north of Kuwait City near Camp Doha, a large military installation serving as a base for some 17,000 troops based in the oilrich Gulf nation.

The embassy statement said one man died of multiple gunshot wounds and the other man was in critical condition, also with multiple gunshot wounds.

REVELSTOKE, British Columbia — An avalanche roared down a mountain in eastern British Columbia, burying and killing seven people, including three Americans.

One other skier was hospitalized after the avalanche Monday in the jagged Selkirk mountain range while the rest of the group of 21 avoided serious injury, police said.

The remote area where the avalanche struck, accessible only by helicopter, contributed to hours of confusion Monday.

Initial reports said eight skiers died, all of them American, out of a group of 11. Later, Sgt. Randy Brown of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police said seven people died — three Americans and four Canadians — from a group of 21 skiers that split into two groups on the mountain.

Brown said two of the American fatalities were from California and one from Colorado, but he released no further information about their identities or hometowns. The other four dead were Canadian — two from British Columbia and two from Alberta.

Ingrid Boaz at Selkirk Mountain Experience said the skiing party had been flown to the company's chalet near the glacier, 6,336 feet above sea level in the heart of the mountains in eastern British Columbia near the border with Alberta.

Now all the scientists need are some dust storms, the prime area of interest for the researchers.

ATLANTA — Possible military action in Iraq and affirmative action were on people's minds as they commemorated the Martin Luther King Jr. holiday across the country.

King's widow, Coretta Scott King, addressed a crowd of about 1,000 on Monday at King's former man who was later killed by police pulpit, Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta, calling on world leaders to settle their differences peacefully.

"We commemorate Martin Luther King Jr. as a great champion of peace who warned us that war was a poor chisel for carving out a peaceful tomorrow," King said. 'We must pursue peaceful ends through peaceful means. Martin said, 'True peace is not just the absence of tension, it is the presence of justice."

The civil rights leader would have turned 74 last Wednesday. He was assassinated in 1968.

President Bush, speaking at a Baptist church in Landover, Md., said there's still work to do to reach King's dream of equality in

In Los Angeles, an estimated 150,000 people lined Martin Luther King Jr. Boulevard for a parade led by Gov. Gray Davis and the mayors of both Los Angeles and San Francisco. A few dozen anti-war protesters held signs denouncing a possible war with Iraq.

Prosecutors were expected to call Air Force Brig. Gen. Stephen T. Sargeant, who headed up an investigative board that faulted Umbach and Schmidt for the bombing, saying the deaths would not have hap-Ilan Ramon, who became the first pened if they simply had left the area in accordance with rules of engagement in force at the time.

Today, prosecutors called an Air Force intelligence officer, Capt. Evan Cozadd, who said pilots flying missions over southern Afghanistan had been told that nonenemies might be on the ground near Kandahar.

POMONA, Calif. — A toddler eating lunch with his mother at a Burger King was shot to death by a outside the restaurant.

Police said the gunman was eating lunch in this suburb about 30 miles east of Los Angeles on Monday when he suddenly stood up and opened fire. He was fatally shot a block away from the restaurant when he allegedly pointed his gun

Three others were later taken into custody for investigation of murder. "It appeared to be unmotivated,"
