sports brief

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Michael Jordan turned down offers from Tracy McGrady and Allen Iverson to relinquish their starting spots in the All-Star Game.

McGrady, the Orlando guard who led the Eastern Conference in fan balloting, made his offer Thursday. Iverson made a similar offer in a private phone call a week and a half ago, Jordan revealed.

Lady Mustangs take 51-40 win

Crystal Hernandez dribbled the ball down court for the Grant Junior High Lady Mustangs after a steal from the Quinter Bulldogs during Thursday afternoon's home game. Whitney Dautel and Candice Meissinger ran down to assist Hernandez. Goodland's eighth grade team defeated Quinter 51-40 during the A team game and won the B team game, two six-minute quarters, 10-6.

Coach says Cowboy wrestlers ready for league tournament on Saturday

By Michelle L. Hawkins
The Goodland Daily News

The Goodland Cowboy wrestlers will head to St. Francis on Saturday for the Northwest Kansas League's 42nd annual tournament.

The first round will begin at 8:30 a.m.(Mountain Time) in the St. Francis High School gym. Championship semi-finals, the first round of consolation bracket, second round of consolation bracket and the championship finals will follow. The finals are expected to begin around 3 p.m.

Goodland coach Randy Bahe said Hoxie will be the team to beat.

Last year, Goodland won by a single point over Hoxie.

Bahe said he feels his team has been doing better the past couple of weeks.

"We have been plagued by injuries and sickness," he said. "We are doing the best we can considering we have only had a half to a third of the practice room full for the last three weeks."

Goodland has four wrestlers ranked last week by the Kansas Wrestling Coaches Association. Blayze Bahe (119 pounds) and Jordan Bedore (215) are both ranked first in their weight classes while Dexter Deeds (112) and Taylor Brack (160) ranked fourth.

As a team, Hoxie is ranked first in Classes 3-2-1A with Oakley in fourth. Goodland is ranked second in Class 4A and Colby is sixth.

Other league wrestlers who are ranked include:

Atwood: 189: Tanner Schmidt, fourth; 215: Jeff Horinek, fourth.

Colby: 103: Daniel Tibbles, fifth; 130: Jesse Tibbles, third; 145: Eric Luedke, first; 152: Schuyler Sharpe, first.

Hoxie: 103: Cale Farber, first; 119: Tyler Baker, third; 125: Tyrel Spillman, first; 135: Matt

Schippers, first; 140: Jason Shippers, second; 145: Kurt Schamberger, fifth; 160: Doug Campbell, second; 189: Justin Cooper, sixth.

Oakley: 112: Levi Younkin, second; 125: Shawn Kuhlman, sixth; 152: Cody Younkin, fifth; 171: Bobby Dennis, first.

Oberlin: 130: Matt Coleman, fourth; 135: Kenyon Badsy, Oberlin, second; 140: chance Harmon, fourth.

Quinter: none.

St. Francis: 112: Dylan Loyd, third; 160: Derek Ross, fifth; 215: Dallas Walz, sixth.

K.C. Royals invite 17 players to train

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — First baseman Morgan Burkhardt and pitchers Buddy Carlyle and Jason Turman returned from Japan to sign minor league contracts with the Kansas City Royals, and are among 17 players the team invited to spring training on Thursday.

The team's first workout will be Feb. 15 for pitchers and catchers, with the first full-squad workout scheduled for Feb. 20 in Surprise, Ariz.

Burkhart, a graduate of Central Missouri State, played with the Boston Red Sox before spending last season with the Fukuoka Daiei Hawks. Carlyle played for the Hanshin Tigers and Turman was with the Yokohama BayStars last season.

Of those invited, three appear likely to begin the season with Kansas City: Pitcher James Baldwin, who was 7-10 with a 5.28 ERA in 2002 with Seattle; reliever Sean Lowe, who went a combined 5-3 last season with Pittsburgh and Colorado; and catcher Mike DiFelice, who hit .230 in 70 games last year with St. Louis.

The Royals also invited left-handed reliever Rick DeHart, who attended Washburn University in Topeka. DeHart, who pitched in parts of three seasons for Montreal.
