

Junior varisty wrestlers place nine at home tourney

By Michelle L. Hawkins

The Goodland Star-News

Nine area teams came to wrestle in a junior varsity tournament Saturday at the Max Jones Fieldhouse sponsored by Goodland High.

Oberlin, Wray, Colo., Oakley, Hoxie, WaKeeney, Hays, Scott City, Quinter and Liberal, plus 10 Cowboys, participated. Three Goodland wrestlers took first in their weights.

Goodland head coach Randy Bahe said he was happy with the performance. He said a couple of the boys were sick and continued to wrestle, and they did a good job.

"Overall I was pleased with the way they wrestled," he said.

Chad Normandin, 103 pounds, took first place with a tournament record of 2-0. The two others who finished first were Malcom White at 135 and Brandon Cowan at 171. White wrestled 4-0 for the day, while Cowen was 3-0.

Two Cowboys finished second. Ray Brigham at 119 finished 2-2 and Mark Starr at 171 went 2-1. Michael Middleton at 160 pounds finished third with a 2-1 record.

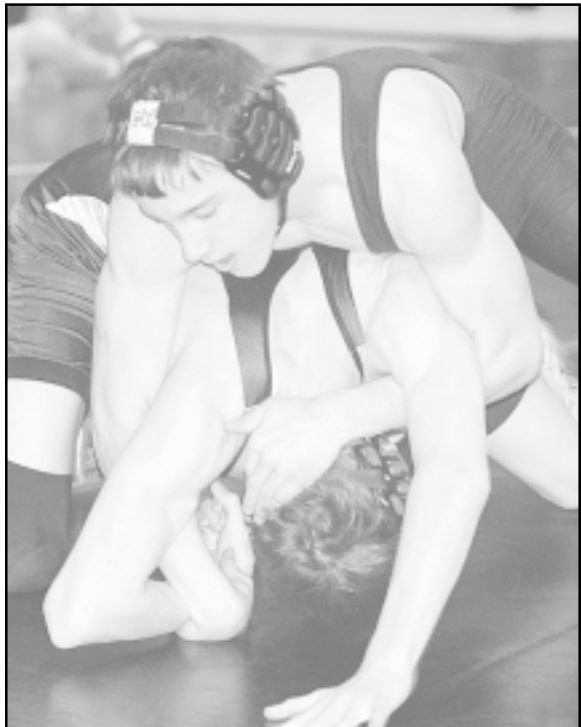

Three Cowboys ended the tournament in fourth place, Brett Lalicker, 112; Tray Klinge, 135; and Brandon Hatfield, 140. All three wrestlers finished the day 2-2.

The only other Cowboy participant was Justin Holloway at 112 pounds, who did not place.

Brewster splits night with Oakley

By Michelle L. Hawkins

The Goodland Star-News

In a Tuesday night match-up with the Oakley Plainsmen, the Brewster Bulldogs finished the night with a win and a loss as the girls won 49-40 and the boys lost 56-51.

BREWSTER GIRLS

The game was close through the first three periods, with only a point separating Brewster and Oakley in each.

Brewster was on top at the end of the first quarter 10-9, but Oakley turned the table and outscored Brewster 6-5 in the second. The score at halftime was tied at 15.

After the break, Oakley once again put up more than the Lady Bulldogs, 13-12. With Brewster being down by a point, 28-27, heading into the final quarter, the Lady Bulldogs kicked it into gear.

In the fourth quarter, the Lady Bulldogs scored 22 points while keeping the Oakley girls to only 12 points. Brewster pulled out the win, 49-40.

Alicia Collett lead the Lady Bulldogs in scoring with 10. Jalyn Reid had 9, Amy Carpenter put up 8, Caitlan Rush 7, Andrea Horney and Sara Luckert had 6 each, and Kristy Jamison 2, and Miranda Starns had 1 point.

BREWSTER BOYS

Oakley dominated the first half of the boys game, but Brewster made a comeback in the second half, still falling short of what was needed for the win.

In the first period, the Plainsmen put up 7 points while Brewster had 6. Oakley followed it up in the second period by outscoring Brewster 17-7. As the teams left for halftime, Oakley had a 23-13 lead.

Brewster came back charged from the break at the half and was able to overpower Oakley in the final two periods, 17-13 and 21-19, but it wasn't enough to cover the deficit created in the first half. Brewster lost 56-51.

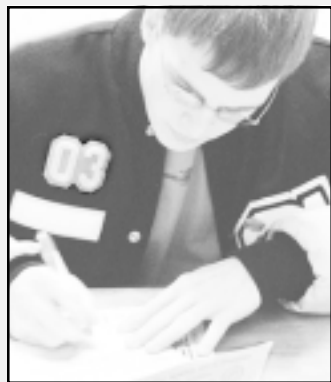

Two Bulldogs scored in the double figures, Heath Baird with 18 and Paul Flanders with 11. Other Bulldogs recording points were Jace Terry 8, Jacob Falcon and Jarrett Carpenter 5, while Jake Long and Josh Ryan had 2 apiece.

West signs to play junior college baseball

Landon West, a Goodland High School senior, has signed a letter of intent to play baseball at Cowley County Community College in Arkansas City. He will be pitching for the Tigers.

The Cowley Tigers, under Coach Dave Burroughs, have won eight Jayhawk East championships, five Region VI championships and two national championships.

West played little league and K-18 baseball under coach Scott Weber, and American Legion under Trenton Douglas, Sid Unruh and Stony Wilson. He played Fall Ball in the instructional league under Al Bleser, who used to coach for the Colorado Rockies.

Landon West

West is the son of Daryl and Liz West of Goodland.
