Cowgirls frustrated in Colby

By Darrel Pattillo
The Goodland Star-News

The Goodland Cowgirls scored the first four points Tuesday night in Colby, but were helpless to stop the Lady Eagles from scoring the next 18 points in a frustrating 59-39 loss.

The Cowgirls would end with three players in double figures, but only one other player who scored at all.

Colby's 12-4 lead at the end of the first quarter turned into a 32-15 at half time, with the Cowgirls unable to get anything going under the glass.

The Cowgirls came out of the locker room and put together a good third period, outscoring Colby 13-11.

It took almost four minutes for either team to score in the third, and by going to a pressure defense, the Cowgirls were able to keep the Lady Eagles from pulling any farther away. The score after three was 43-28.

The Cowgirls had a tough time with Colby's full-court press, which caused a whopping 24 Cowgirl turnovers.

Goodland scored the first four points of the fourth period, and by applying full-court pressure, managed to cut the lead to 47-36 when Jayci Stone hit a three-point basket with 3:30 left in the game.

Even though the Cowgirls put up 23 points in the fourth, it wasn't enough to catch up to the Lady Eagles.

Stone led the Cowgirl scoring with 14. Jessica Osborn had 11 points, Anny McCoy 10, and Justeen Koehler was the fourth Cowgirl scorer, with 4.

For Colby, Emily Sloan led with 15, Amanda Seeman scored 12, Brianna Swafford and Summar Stephens 11 each, Bethanie Linden four, Sam Wolf three, Ivy Ramsey two, and Breann Hart one.

The Cowgirls are in action again on Tuesday at Norton.

Game time is scheduled for 5:30 Mountain Time.

Goodland to host Class 1A basketball regionals

The Brewster Lady Bulldogs (13-5) are the top-seeded girl's team in the Class 1A regional tournament, which starts Monday evening and concludes Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Max Jones Fieldhouse in Goodland.

The Jennings Coyotes, at 11-7, are the top-seeded boy's team.

The girls teams open the tournament with games being played at the designated home courts.

The boys will start play on Tuesday, again at the designated home locations.

Thursday, the action moves to the Max Jones, with two semifinal girl's games getting underway at 7 p.m.

Friday night, the two boy's semifinals will take place at 7 p.m. at the Fieldhouse.

Saturday, the regional girls championship starts at 6 p.m. at the fieldhouse, and the boys title game is scheduled for 7:30.

Here are the matchups and locations for Monday's first round action (all times in this round are Central Time):

Cowboys fall short against Eagles

By Darrel Pattillo
The Goodland Star-News

The Cowboys' game plan was simple: Get the ball inside.

"That was the plan," Cowboy basketball coach Jon McLean said. "We didn't think there was anyone who could stop our post players."

The plan worked at times, but Goodland couldn't stop the Colby Eagles from winning 71-59 Tuesday night in Colby.

Don Raymer scored nine of the Cowboys' 12 first-quarter points, but the Eagles had jumped out to a 20-12 lead by the end of the period.

The Cowboys stormed right back, shutting the Eagles down in the second quarter. Raymer scored another eight points, and between him and freshman Bobby Miller, Goodland was able to grab the lead at 25-24 with just over three minutes left in the half. Colby's Landon Stover would tie the game at 27 with a long-range bucket at the buzzer.

"We just didn't play well," McLean said, "especially the first and third quarters. The big difference in the game was rebounding. Colby just had to many offensive rebounds."

The Eagles put up another 20 points in the third period

As in so many Goodland-Colby games, the fourth quarter was a battle. Cowboy junior Lance Tedford got the team and the fans going with two three-pointers to open the fourth quarter, and all of a sudden Goodland was just five points down.

It was off to the races at that point, but Colby was able to hold off the Cowboys, who went to the hack-attack with just over two minutes left in the game. Colby was good enough at the foul line to foil that strategy, and the Cowboys couldn't close the gap.

Scoring for the Cowboys were Raymer with 27, Tedford with nine, Aaron Gittinger and Miller seven, Kris Rubio five, Jase Herl three, and Jared Duke one.

Goodland's record now stands at 13-6. The Cowboys will be in Norton on Tuesday night.

"They're a good team," McLean said. "They've got a good record. It's going to be tough. We'll have to play pretty good to beat them."

The action starts at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday night in Norton, with the varsity game a about 7 p.m. Mountain Time.
