Spring schedule busy for junior varsity softball

The Goodland High junior varsity softball team has been as busy as the varsity, playing all over the area.

The girls started out with 11-1, 20-5, wins over Colby on April 11.

Then on April 14, the girls traveled to Syracuse for a makeup game. However, the Bulldogs were too much for the Cowgirls, who lost 12-2, 6-7.

A little over a week later, after a series in Garden City was called because of weather, the girls went to Liberal for another rescheduled appearance. The junior varsity Cowgirls won the first game 11-3 but lost the second 8-4.

In the first game at Syracuse, pitcher Lauren Gray had a tough outing, as the Bulldogs got eight hits, 12 runs and seven walks. She had a pair of strikeouts.

In the second game, Aubrea Winter got four strikeouts while giving up five walks, nine hits and seven runs.

The Cowgirls didn't hit well in the series, with only six singles in the two games. Singling were Deanna Thompson, Winter, Jordan Frazier, L. Gray (2), and Chelsea Gray. While they didn't have many hits, they were able to walk 13 times. Taking free bases were C. Gray, Ciara Abbey, Cortney Shields, Tomi Windell, Frazier (2), Melissa Swager (2), Megan Sheldon, Thompson, Justeen Koehler, Jennifer Mentzer and L. Gray.

Mentzer was credited with the only Cowgirls runs batted in (RBI) in the contests.

When the Cowgirls took on the Liberal Redskin,s L. Gray pitched the first game and took home the win with nine strikeouts and five walks. Liberal got four hits and three runs.

In the second game, the Redskins got more aggressive, hitting six off of pitcher Winter and getting eight runs. Winter got seven strikeouts and gave up seven walks.

This time, the Cowgirls had more hits to show for their efforts.

In the first game Frazier tripled, Emily Burkett doubled and C. Gray (2), Frazier, L. Gray, J. Koehler, Winter (2), and May Davis singled. C. Gray, Frazier and Burkett were credited with a pair of RBIs each while L. Gray and Winter got one apiece.

In the second game, Swager hit a double and C. Gray, Courtney Deines, J. Koehler (2), Winter, Morgan Titus and May Davis hit singles. C. Gray, Deines and Frazier received RBIs.
