Outlaws drop two at McCook

The Outlaws, a baseball team of Goodland and St. Francis high school students, lost a pair of games, 10-6 and 2-1, last week to the McCook, Neb., Bisons in McCook.

The Outlaws drew first blood in the first game with a double by Kyle Schulte. He was able to score two outs later on an error.

McCook also got a run in the first to tie the score 1-1.

In the second inning, Brandon Lohr got a base hit but was unable to get home. The home team got a double, but was unable to score.

In the third, the Outlaws were unable to score despite a base hit and stolen base by Jake Alander. The Bisons were not able to score, either.

The Outlaws went one, two three in the bottom of the fourth on a strike out and a pair of ground balls.

The Bisons made the most of the fourth, however, with five runs on four doubles, a single and three Outlaw errors.

The score was now 5-1 in favor of the home team.

Kyle Schulte started out the top of the fifth with a walk. He was unable to get home despite a base hit by Cale Rieger.

The Outlaws got out of a jam in the fifth, as the boys from McCook could not turn a single and a walk into any more runs.

The Outlaws were able to tie the game in the top of the sixth on a home run by Landon West. A base hit by Brock Lohr, a walk to Tyrel Rall, a pitch that hit Wyatt Dautel, a base hit by Kevin Schulte and another walk gave the Outlaws five more runs, and the score stood 6-6.

However, The Bisons scored four more in their half of the sixth after four straight walks, a couple of errors and a sacrifice.

The McCook boys won the first game 10-6.

In the second game, the Outlaws were able to get a base hit and stolen base from Alander in the top of the first, but stranded the man at second.

The Bisons were also unable to score in the first, going out a fly ball and a pair of grounders.

The Outlaws were up and down in three in the second with a strike out, a fly ball and a grounder.

The boys from McCook came up with a pair of doubles and a walk to produce a pair of runs and take the lead 2-0.

In the third, Derrick Raymer got a base hit and Kyle Schulte got on base by a fielders choice but neither was able to get home.

The Bisons were unable to score in the third despite a base hit.

The Outlaws scored their only run in the fourth on a double by Alander. West was hit by a pitch and Rieger hit into a fielders choice.

The Bisons were skunked in the fourth by a grounder, a fly ball and a strike out.

The Outlaws were not able to score in the fifth and the game went to the home team 2-1.

Kyle and Kevin Schulte and Lohr combined to pitch the first game and Kevin Schulte pitched the second unassisted.

Animal shelter supporters ‘Putt for Pets’

Twelve teams played in the first “Puttin for Pets” golf tournament held Saturday at the Sugar Hills Golf Club in Goodland.

First-place winners in the benefit scramble were “The Greyhounds,” Lonnie Whiteker, Travis Jones, Randy Gausman and Lane Linthacum.

Second were “The Boxers,” Stan Kibel, Kevin Kibel, Doug Johnson and Phil Erickson.

Third went to “The Bulldogs from Brewster,” Albert Rall, Marvin Bishop, Rex Jamison and Brett Amberger.

All participants received a golf towel donated by State Farm Insurance and Jim Neal or an animal shelter T-shirt donated by the Northwest Kansas Animals Shelter.

The “Poodles,” Jane Philbrick, Marlene Whiteker, Teresa Sieck, Connie Livengood and Dick Liess, received the Friends of the Animal Shelter Award.

“The animal shelter board would like to thank all who participated in the tournament, as well as the hole sponsors,” said Sandy Rogers, head of the animal shelter board. “We had a great time and Randy Topliff’s rendition of ‘Release the Hounds’ as all the participants took off howling and barking in their golf carts destined for their respective holes set the tone for the fun event.”

Hospital to benefit from ‘Slice of Life’ golf tourney

By Sharon Corcoran

The Goodland Star-News

Slice of Life, a benefit social, auction and golf tournament, will raise money for the Goodland Regional Medical Center next month.

Golfers could win $5,000 for a hold in one, even a new car. Representatives of the Kansas City Chiefs and Denver Broncos, Chiefs cheerleaders, entertainers and politicians will be on hand for the event.

There will be opportunities for autographs and pictures, autographed memorabilia will be sold at the auction and prizes will be awarded during the golf tournament.

Slice of Life, put on by the Northwest Kansas Area Medical Foundation, will be Saturday and Sunday, June 21 and 22. The social will begin at 6 p.m. Saturday at the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall in Goodland, and the auction will follow.

The social and auction have been held at the Sugar Hills Golf Club, but Dale Schields, hospital human resources director and event coordinator, said they were moved to gain seating and sound quality and to avoid problems with inclement weather.

The golf tournament will start at 8:30 a.m. Sunday at the Sugar Hills course. The entry fee is a $120 per person or $360 per team, which includes two admissions per player for the auction, special favors, cart and green fees, lunch, beverages and the post-tournament award ceremony.

Three-person teams of men and women will be divided into Acute, Chronic, Malingering and Malady flights. Golfers must be 21 or older.

Prizes will be awarded to the members of the first-, second- and third-place teams in each of the four flights. There will also be special event prizes, including closest to the pin (second shot and tee shot), closest to the bedpan, longest drive, shortest drive, closest approach shot, putting contest, closest to the IV and longest putt.

There will be a $10,000 hole-in-one prize, $5,000 to the golfer and $5,000 to the foundation. Dan Brenner Ford-Mercury will provide a car to be awarded for a hole-in-one on the second hole.

Trips, golf items, recreational equipment and apparel will be awarded as door prizes.

Non-golfers pay $30 to attend the auction and will be served hors d'oeuvres and beverages. There will also be entertainment and dancing following the auction. Tickets to the auction are available at Mr. Jim's His Shop and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

To enter the golf tournament call Schields at 899-6005 or Mary Ann Elliott at 899-6093.

There is no deadline to enter, Schields said, but only 46 teams will be accepted.

Since its inception in 1989, he said, the benefit has raised $210,000 for the hospital to purchase equipment and pay for scholarships for area residents interested in pursuing a career in health care.

Last year, it raised $36,000.

New couple promoting speedway

Lloyd and Rebecca Koel have taken on the responsibilities as track promoters at Sherman County Speedway this year.

Now living in Goodland, the Koels are Colby natives. Lloyd works at the Northwest Technical College as an instructor in diesel technology. Rebecca is a charge nurse at Goodland Regional Medical Center. The couple has two sons.

Lloyd is a former racer, in the cruiser division, and is beginning his fourth year as the track official at Thomas County Speedway, where he lines up the cars in the pits and sends them on to the track.

When asked what the goals for their first year at the Goodland track were, the couple said they hope to increase both the grandstand crowd and the car count by increasing efficiency in the pace of the show and scoring of the races.

Other goals are learning the intricacies of proper track preparation (including outguessing the weather) and eventually updating and improving equipment to produce a good track surface that racers will want to return to.

Sherman County Speedway is one of many area tracks with a long history of racing.

At the May 17 races, the speedway played host to 24 of the winged sprint cars, along with 42 cars of the three regular class divisions. The races were exciting and fast paced. Action will return to the speedway at 6:30 p.m. Saturday.
