Colorado trip includes family visit

I spent several days in Colorado and visited my sister and brother-in-law Sunday afternoon before I headed up to the canyon.

They are both feeling somewhat better, and I hope it stays that way. I also visited with my niece and her husband the same time.

He's having serious problems with a problem that surfaced three years ago. They are running a battery of tests, X-rays, cat scans and magnetic resonance imaging. It's nothing new; just a continuation of this life-threatening problem.

The canyon was gorgeous; everything is nice and green, and the river has the most water in it since three years ago.

This water has brought out the rafters, canoeists and kayakers in record numbers. They've had one death since the first of June, and we saw a lady that got dumped out of the raft along the side of the road.

My friend Dolly stopped, the licensed practical nurse and emergency medical technician in her, and checked on the lady. She thought she had a broken leg but wouldn't let Dolly touch her.

As we were leaving, the van from the group came and picked her up to take her to the hospital, thinking too that she had broken a leg. I'm curious to know if it actually was or was just badly banged up.

I spent a lot of time with Dolly and had a very enjoyable time in spite of blowing out the muffler on the car. Boy you could hear me coming even if you couldn't see me.

The Floyd and Betty Wegners had visitors from Texas, a daughter, Donna Hicks, her daughter Kimberly Baker and a great-granddaughter Brittany Villiva. They spent several days visiting and having a general good time.

Visitors of Helen Denton were two daughters, Donna Eubanks of Texas and Mary Garver of Atlanta and Mary's two granddaughters from Memphis. I hope they have a wonderful time visiting and a safe journey home.

There is going to be a reception of the up-coming 100th birthday of Vera Daise from 2-5 p.m. Saturday, July 5, at the Catholic family center. All are welcome to attend.

Vera is a resident at Wheat Ridge Acres. Her birthday is in the winter, and this time makes it easier for out of state family members to come for the celebration.

A memory or photos can be the gift to place in a binder. The mailing address for those who cannot attend is Apt. 132, 707 Wheat Ridge Circle, Goodland, Kan. 67735. Happy birthday greetings to a grand lady.

The birthdays on my calendar are those of Kathy (Jack) Chatfield Elliott on the 21st, John Heyer on the 22nd, John Foust and Mary Jo Errington on the 24th, my great nephew Matt DeCico on the 27th and Scott Mentzer on the 29th.

Happy birthday to these and any others adding another year to their calendar of life.

Best wishes to Vera Fortmeyer on her new residence in Wichita. I'm going to miss her, but I wish her luck as she will be closer to her family.

Sincere sympathy to Ron and Charlie Weber families on the loss of their sister Viola from Oakley. Her services will be the 25th. May they all know the healing hand of the Almighty.

With harvest starting in full swing this weekend, Terry and Linda Nash will be arriving from Tennessee, and Marvin, Cindy and Ryan Swayne are here until the weekend. I hope to get to see them all.

Get well wishes to all in the hospital or recovering at home. No further notes available; see you next time. Remember your older neighbors and outdoor pets with this upcoming heat.
