

K-18 record 15-5 with win at home

The Goodland K-18 baseball team raised its record to 15-5 Thursday when the boys split a home doubleheader with Quinter, losing the first game 8-2 and winning the second 9-5.

Today the team begins a road trip, traveling to St. Francis for a double-header beginning at 6 p.m. Mountain Time. On Monday, they will be in Colby and next Wednesday in Hoxie. Those games will begin at 5:30 p.m. Mountain Time.

The sub-regional tournament will be held in Colby on Friday-Sunday, July 11-13. Goodland will host the regional tournament the weekend of July 18-20, and the state tournament will be at Lucas on July 27-30.

Against Quinter, Goodland took an early 2-1 lead in the first game behind the pitching of Andrew Pettibone, who threw 4 1/3 innings before Torrey Elder came in for the final 1 2/3 inning.

Brett Lalicker got things started when he tried to stretch a triple into a home run, but was out at home. Brandon Hatfield followed with a single and stole second. Brandon Zelfer was hit by a pitch, moved to second on a single by Mark Starr and then Zelfer stole third. Hatfield scored on Starr's single, and Zelfer scored on a single by Derek Fenner.

Lalicker had a single in the second, a single in the fourth and a double in the sixth, but Goodland could not put together a score.

Starr had another single in the third. Goodland loaded the bases, but was unable to score. Fenner had a triple in the fifth, but he was stranded at third.

Elder tried to help with a base hit in the sixth followed by the double by Lalicker, but they were stranded on base.

Quinter tied the game in the third inning at 2-2, and then broke it open in the fifth, scoring six runs.

Quinter had 11 hits, Goodland 10.

In the second game, Quinter took an early 4-0 lead. Bobby Miller started for Goodland, but Brandon Hatfield relieved him after one out. Miller had one strike out, but gave up four walks and hit two batters to walk in the first three Quinter runs.

Hatfield came in with the bases loaded and struck out the first batter. He then gave up a walk which brought in the fourth Quinter run before getting the next batter to fly out to Pettibone at first.

Quinter added a run in the second to make it 5-0, but Goodland came back in the third, scoring four runs on back-to-back hits by Lalicker, T.J. Hawkins, Zelfer and Fenner. Hatfield had a single to round out the hitting and the score was 5-4 Quinter after three.

Goodland tied the score in the fourth when Pettibone got a single and then stole second, scoring on single by Lalicker.

Fenner got things started in the fifth with a single and then stole second. However, he was thrown out by the shortstop.

Goodland then broke things open with four runs on three back-to-back singles after Starr drew a walk. Singles by Hatfield, Elder and Tadd Taylor gave Goodland the win 9-5.

Goodland had 12 hits, Quinter 5.

Legion splits pair at tournament

The skies opened Saturday evening and dropped nearly half an inch of rain on Goodland, swamping the baseball field and canceling the second half of the Levi Hayden Memorial tournament on Sunday.

The next action for the Goodland American Legion team is scheduled at 6 p.m. on Wednesday at home against Wray, Colo.

Goodland defeated Calhan, 6-2 in the opening game of the Levi Hayden tournament on Saturday, but lost to Ellis 5-3. This lets the Goodland team's at record 3-3.

Academy of Charter from Denver was declared the winner of the tournament in a tie with Ellis. Each team had a 2-0 record Saturday. Academy defeated Calhan, 9-1, and Wray, 12-2. Ellis defeated Wray, 7-6 and Goodland, 5-3.

Daniel Henry, third baseman for Calhan, received the Inspirational Player award.

The award is given each year by the Hayden family in memory of their son, who played baseball early in his life, but died on Feb. 21, 1997. Part of the proceeds from the tournament go to a scholarship fund established by his parents for baseball players. Landon
