Goodland players switch teams to play Wray

Officially, Goodland's American Legion team improved its season record to 5-3 with a two-game forfeit by Wray because they were short a player.

Wray only had eight players, so the official games were forfeit, but with the help of a substitute from the Goodland team, they played two games with Wray, with Goodland losing the first 23-19 and winning the second 9-5.

The Goodland team will be in action this week as they were to host Scott City on Monday and travel to Wray on Wednesday. Sunday, they will host Colby at 5 p.m., and then host Imperial at 6 p.m. on Tuesday.

Goodland's Derek Fenner played with the Wray team in the first game and Brett Ross substituted in the second.

Jared Doke pitched for Goodland in the first game, but was replaced by Brock Lohr.

Goodland fell behind 5-3 in the first inning and was down 19-5 at the end of the second inning. Wray scored two more in the third inning and three in the fourth for their 23 runs.

Goodland made a charge in the fourth inning, scoring 12 runs to close the gap, but was unable to overcome the deficit to lose 23-19.

In the game, Wyatt Dautel had three doubles and a single in his four at bats. Matt Kuhlman had a double and a single and Jacob Alander and Lohr had singles. Playing for Wray, Fenner had a single.

In the second game, Goodland got an early jump, six runs on six hits in the first inning including a home run by Landon West with Alander on base. Alander had a single to start the hitting spree and promptly stole second.

Kuhlman followed the West home run with a triple. Dautel had a single, Lohr got a double and Jacob Johnson finished the hitting with a single. Johnson stole second and went to third on a passed ball. He scored when Jon Cook flied out for the second out of the inning.

Kuhlman started the game as pitcher, but West relieved him in the fourth.

Goodland added two runs in the second and one in the fourth for their nine.

Wray scored one run in the first, one in the second and three in the third for their five.

Brett Ross rounded second and headed toward third in a game against Wray on Wednesday.
