

Thomas and Suwanna Bremenkamp

Couple wed in Hays

Suwanna Manomas of Bangkok, Thailand, and Thomas Anthony Bremenkamp of Brewster married Saturday, June 14, 2003, in Hays. The couple will have a reception at 6 p.m. Mountain Time Saturday, Aug. 9, at Hunter Hall in Brewster. Purple was the color chosen for the wedding. Following a wedding trip to Thailand, the couple is now at home in Hays. Pamela and Anthony Bremen-kamp of Brewster are the groom's parents, and Yanee and Sawai Manomas of Bangkok are the bride's. Earl and Dorothy Kempton of Salina are the groom's grandpar-ents, and Songsu and Sue SaeJoe from Thailand are the bride's. The groom earned a bachelor of general study degree at Fort Hays State University. The bride earned her bachelor's degree in Bangkok and a master's degree from Fort Hays State Uni-versity.

Hot weather not preventing colds

It's hard to believe there is less than a week left of July as I start this column. This hot weather has certainly been raising Cain on a lot of things, including people.

Several have told me they have gotten the worst cold in a long while. There are several who have flu-like symptoms, including stom-ach disorders and fever. I'm keep-ing my fingers crossed that I don't get down with this stuff.

There have been several family reunions, among which was the Owens families held at Bubba's corner in Brewster. There were 65 in attendance.

Luckert families had a reunion at Bud and Tess Luckert's home here in Goodland. Another one was the Reid family held at the home in Joan and Royal Reid.

The Wheat Ridge center keeps their residents busy with fun things, the latest being the Hula party that was enjoyed by many from the community.

In spite of the heat, many families are having out of state visitors. June and Boyd Miller of Apple Valley, Calif., came to visit various rela-tives, both here and in Colorado.

They visited her mother Helen Jones at Good Samaritan and her Aunt Florence Farris. They visited a nephew and spent the night with Boyd's brother here in Goodland.

Then they visited her sister Fern Martin and the Dick Jones' before departing for California. While at Wal-Mart, they visited with Vonna Basgall of Sharon Springs.

The fifth birthday of Mason Fritz was observed at the Bowladium.

Corrine Worley, who recently moved back from Colorado, and Florence Farris watched Rick Farris combine the strip wheat by cattle trail road. Welcome back to Corrine, who stopped in at the cen-ter the other day. I hope she joins us occasionally for a meal and other center activities.

Florence Farris has had a lot of company the past two months and will have more to come. Among her visitors have been Freda House, Lorna Nelson, her sons and daugh-ters-in-law and grandkids.

Florence told me that Curtis and Rosalind McKenrick of Edson spent a day in Wallace touring the new museum and antique house. I saw some pictures of that event in the local paper. She also com-mented about the governor of Kansas riding a com-bine at the Ken-neth Palmgren farm at Edson. A picnic in Debbie Martin's back yard was en-joyed by her grandmother Inez and Florence. The food and visiting was good for all in attendance.

Word has been received that Buck Buxton has had a heart attack and has moved to Tennessee to live with his daughter. Cards can be sent to him in care of Debbie Green, 191 Hattie Lane, Spring City, Tenn. 37381.

Inez Bennett has been a busy lady, as she too has had several rela-tives for visits.

One such occasion was with a basket dinner at the Wheat Ridge center. Guests in attendance were Darth and Jessica Bennett and sons Kreen and Rhyan of Cane Creek, Ariz.; Martin and Avonell Spomer of Edson; Tarren Martin of Garden City; Mike and Brannon Pierce of Scottsbluff, Neb.; Brian and Mary Callahan of Goodland; Ron and Ernalea Gallahan and Rusty, Wendy, Mason and Reid Fritz of Edson; Deborah and Tyler Martin of Goodland; and Florence Farris and Inez.

Darth and Jessica Bennett and sons arrived back in Goodland af-ter a visit to Jessica's parents and other relatives in Kansas City. They were on their way home to Arizona and stopped to see Grandma Inez before leaving.

Their are several in the hospital, among those I know of are Velma Holste (recovering from a broken leg and in swing bed); Eunice We-ber; Virginia Elliott and Vida Dillon. I hope I've not missed any-one but wish all the best and a speedy recovery and return to their homes.

Birthdays include belated ones to Ila Zeigler and Jody Miller. Best wishes to these and any others.

There are no anniversaries that I know of, but I am sure there have been some. To all having had a spe-cial day, best wishes and many more to come.

I got my rain forest removed from my yard. It sure is a pleasure to look out and see the neat work done by Nick and Marcia Evert. Thanks, you two, and I would recommend you to anyone. My neighbor Lillian got them to do some clean up for her also. It just got away from me, and I wondered if I'd ever see my yard again. Thanks guys.

I seem to get slower and slower, so I must close now and get this ready for the paper. Take care, and I'll see you all next week.
