

Sherman County 4-H Dog Show gets two paws up

Jonathan McClung guided his dog through the agility course and prepared to get it to jump through a tire hoop.

Dogs lined up in the center ring for the start of the showmanship competition during the 4-H Dog Show on Saturday at the Northwest Kansas District Free Fair. There were three competitions at the show, including showmanship, obedience and agility. Photos by Shannon Davidson/The Goodland Star-News.

Hazen Deeds got his dog through a small tunnel and looked up to see where to go next on the agility course.

Christy Studer tried to encourage her dog to jump over one of the agility course obstacles, but the dog wanted to stop and take a look around.

Mae Smith held the family dog, Rex, an 8-month-old basset hound, while they both watched Rebecca Schmidburger compete in the show.
