

Girl's pig wins at Colorado fair

Danielle Mayer of Fort Collins, Colo., earned the title of Junior All Around Champion Swine Showman at the Colorado State Fair in Pueblo on Aug. 15.

Mayer is the granddaughter of Stan and Delores Kenny of Goodland and Doris and Rex Mayer of Brewster and the great-granddaughter of Doris and Harry Newell of Goodland. Dawn and Bob Mayer are her parents.

Mayer, 11, is a sixth grader at Wellington School. She also won the title at the Loveland County Fair earlier in August.

Danielle Mayer of Fort Collins, Colo., granddaughter of Stan and Delores Kenny of Goodland, had her whip prepared to push her champion pig in the right direction at the Colorado State Fair.

4-H news

The regular monthly meeting of the Sunflower 4-H Club was held Monday, Sept. 15, at the United Methodist Church.

The meeting was called to order by President Samantha Raymer. She led the group in the flag salute and the 4-H pledge.

Roll call was "Your favorite teacher" and was answered by 14 members, nine parents, one leader and three guests. Kathy Wood led the group in a song called "Falling, Falling."

During the business meeting, it was announced that record and officer books are due Monday, Sept. 29. Officers will be elected at the next meeting. Officer training will be Friday, Oct. 31.

Ryan Irvin gave a project talk on aquarium pets. For Ryan Gausman's woodworking project talk, he showed a cedar chest he made for his sister. Kathy Wood did a demonstration on how to make a spice cake.

Chelsie Gausman gave a project talk on her cat, sheep and swine projects. Quick cookies were demonstrated by Dusti Chadwick.

Ryan Irvin led the group in a game called Gossip. Refreshments were served by the Promise and Topliff families.

The next meeting will be at 7 p.m. Monday, Oct. 20.
