

Bike rodeo adds new game, demonstrates skills

Timing is the key in the new bike rodeo game that debuted at the Flatlander Fall Festival Saturday afternoon. The driver has to time the tennis ball as the partner drops it into the pipe at the top and then has to be in position to catch the ball as it rolls out. It proved to be a very popular test of skill, and it was not as easy as it looked.

youths to individual camouflage, the M16 rifle, marksmanship training and how to react to a chemical attack. Guests can go for a ride in a "humvee".

After a dinner prepared in a mobile kitchen trailer, guests will sleep Saturday night on Army cots in tents. Following a military breakfast Sunday morning, they will progress through the remaining stations. After lunch, they will be taken back to the armories.

About 40 soldiers from the 174th Maintenance Ordnance Battalion will support the event. Lt. Col. Lawrence Hannan, the battalion commander, said that "Operation Ambush" is an opportunity for young people who might be interested in the military to experience the adventure and challenges of life as a soldier.

Teens 16-19 interested in attending must register by calling (785) 623-6421 by Wednesday. They will need to bring a completed consent form with them that Saturday.
