Cowgirls keep rounding up the victories

The Cowgirl volleyball team returned from its road trip to Atwood on Tuesday with two more wins, increasing its winning streak to 17 matches.

Goodland defeated the Oberlin Red Devils 25-17 and 25-12 in the Cowgirls' first match and the Atwood Lady Buffaloes 25-10 and 25-18 in their second.

The Cowgirls are 22-2 for the season.

"Atwood and Oberlin were very good opponents for us," said Coach Jerry McKee. "We played well against them."

Freshman Dani Bedore was one of the offensive leaders in the first match, recording seven kills and four service aces. Senior Alisha McKee added eight kills along with a service ace to the Cowgirl attack. Senior Janae McKee had three kills and two aces. Senior Tomi Windell contributed a kill and two aces, and freshman Whitney Archer had two kills.

Defensively, Windell recorded three blocks and Bedore had two. Sophomore Justeen Koehler and A. McKee each had one.

Against Atwood, Windell led the offense with seven kills and three aces. Bedore had eight kills and A. McKee six. Archer and J. McKee had one kill each. Koehler and senior Kelsey Herl each scored a service ace.

A. McKee made four blocks against the Buffaloes with Bedore getting two and Windell one.

The junior varsity and 'C' teams won their matches against Oberlin but both lost to Atwood. Scores were not available. Both teams will be in action Saturday for a tournament in Hays.

The next action for the varsity will next Tuesday in Grinnell, where Goodland will face Oakley, Weskan and Grinnell.

Goodland tennis team places third at Colby Invitational

The Goodland Cowgirls finished third Thursday in a tennis tournament that had to be delayed two days due to rain.

The Colby Invitational had been scheduled for Tuesday, but when the dust settled Thursday, Phillipsburg had won with 45 points. Goodland scored 28.

In No. 1 doubles, Megan McCall and Jennifer Mentzer finished first with a 4-0 record. They beat Bryan/Hess of Scott City 6-2, Govert/
