

Tracy and Conrad Walters

Couple wed in Colorado

Conrad Lee Walters and Tracy Lynn Swain, both of Cañon City, Colo., were married in a double-ring ceremony at their new home on Valentine's Day.

Former Goodland residents Karen and Lee Walters are the groom's parents. Lorna and Terry Bruns of Pine Bluff, Wyo., are the bride's.

Kayla Swain, daughter of the bride, served as their flower girl. Brothers of the couple, Curtis Walters of Cañon City and Corey Bruns of Pine Bluff, served as witnesses.

After the couple exchanged vows, the groom presented his new step-daughter with her own diamond ring. Following the ceremony, a dinner and dance was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Edna Harris of Goodland and the late Martin and Ruth Ann Felzien of Kanorado are the groom's grandparents. Marge and Chet Bruns of Cheyenne, Wyo., are the brides'.

Out-of-town guest at the wedding were Rusty and Wendy Fritz of Goodland; Scott Eldred of Denver; Lorna and Terry Bruns, Corey and Kaycee Bruns and Diana Garcia, all of Pine Bluff; Dan and Jenny Trogie of Colorado Springs; Magie Quintana, Kelee Dell and Mendy Simmons and sons, all of Florence, Colo.; and Tracy and Allen Rexford of Penrose, Colo.

The groom graduated from Goodland High School and from the Northwest Kansas Vocational Technical School with a degree in electronics. The bride graduated from Pine Bluff's High School and the University of Wyoming with a bachelors degree in psychology.

The couple works for the U.S. Department of Justice. They live in Cañon City.

Livestock judging team finishes fourth

The Sherman County Senior 4-H Livestock Judging team placed fourth at the Scott County Livestock Judging Contest in August. Members include Amber Cowan, Clay Schilling, Ross Townsend, Jonathan McClung and Brett Meissinger.

Clay Schilling placed fifth overall, fourth-place in beef judging and

Brownville School event draws 40

Oct. 1 marked another year for the Brownville School Reunion. Forty attended, including many faithful ones who never miss a year.

Kenneth Siruta was a first-timer. Bob Case from Washington state is one of the very faithful ones, but his wife was ill and was not able to come with him.

Nadine (Boyer) Hockett of Colorado Springs attended and wondered how so many from a long distance always make it to the reunion, but local people don't seem interested.

"They just don't realize how much fun they're missing out on," she said. "We never give up and always hope we will see more new faces next year."

She said it was encouraging to have the one first-timer this year.

Others coming from a distance were Judith (Kutscher) Dickson and husband Warren of Montrose, Colo., Nielee (Seigal) Heinrick and husband Harold of Wichita, Fern (Jacobs) Colton and husband Charles of Hays and Rex Schroeder and wife Ethel of Oberlin.

Attending from Denver were Howard Seigal and wife Lou, Alfred Musil and wife Lela and Darrell Powell. Bob Fisher and wife Barbara and Hockett's husband Don, all of Colorado Springs, were also there.

Several from Goodland attended, including the master of ceremonies, Glenn Burk; Marie Elliott, Cecil Wulf and wife Dolly; Delmare Musil and wife Arleta; Jessie (Jacobs) Owens; La Vona (Schwerdt) Rand; Mr. and Mrs. Morris Kear; Georgia (Markley) Weis and Mike and Joyce Burk. Joyce decorated the tables, Hockett said, and did a beautiful job, making it cozy and nice.

The faithful attendees from Colby were Matt Hamill, Cleo and Keela (Jones) Case, Charles and Madeleine (Jacobs) Gravner. Attending from Brewster were Helen (Medford) Metzler and husband Merle, Nadine Kammer and Lucille Smith.

Several letters were read from people who were unable to attend. A couple of exciting ones were from Blanche Livingston of Boulder, Colo., and Viola (Wassmiller) Jenik, a former teacher now living in Visalia, Calif.

There were also several letters from relatives of the newly departed. In the last year, those lost include Charles Adams, Fern Medford, Sara (Schwerdt) Cullens, Don Schwerdt, Archie Ford, Merwyn Randiser, husband of Orda (Bowen) Ransier, also deceased, Nelda (Gfeller) Beasily, a former teacher, and Darell Parson.

Friends and old neighbors gathered at 10 a.m. to reminisce and share articles of history on the old school house and buses with side curtains. There were a lot of laughs about those days.

A buffet lunch was served at the Buffalo Inn restaurant in Goodland. The meeting adjourned around 2:30 p.m. with a much-needed slow rain falling.

Former Brownville students and teachers will continue to meet the first Saturday in October, and letters will be mailed out by Sept. 1. They hope to be joined by more first-timers for an enjoyable occasion sharing memories of the "good old days."

4-H youths to be rewarded at achievement program

4-H youths will soon be rewarded for their hard work during the year.

The 4-H Achievement Program will be given out at 2 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 2, at the First Christian Church, with a reception to follow.

Every year, 4-H members receive awards at the program for things they do throughout the year. Awards will be given for earning achievement pins, completing record books, having the best record of certain projects, overall record books, completing their Kansas Awards Applications, perfect attendance, being a 4-H project or club leader and being a counselor at 4-H camp.

Clubs receive a seal for completing this year's requirements.

4-H news

The Beaver Valley 4-H Club held its monthly meeting Monday, Oct. 13, at the First Christian Church. It was guest night, so roll call was "Introducing your guest."

There were 14 members, two leaders, eight guests and six adults present. Rebecca announced the club will be the helpers for the Achievement Awards Program Sunday, Nov. 2. She told everyone what needed to be done and asked for volunteers.

Kim told everyone it is time to start selling fruit and to pick up their forms.

For the program, Hallie led the group in a song of "Row, Row, Row Your Boat." Ricky did health and safety on Halloween safety, and Kyle did a demonstration of ceramics.

The club played a game of four corners led by Kyle. Hallie then announced that the next meeting is at 7 p.m. Monday, Nov. 10, at the First Christian Church and to remember the Achievement Awards Program and Officers' Training Friday, Oct. 31.

Saying the 4-H motto adjourned the meeting. Refreshments were served by everyone bringing a finger food.

WEDNESDAY NIGHTS

$9.99 NY Strip

$1 Draughts • $3 Wings

Starts at 4 Mountain

"The Best Appetizers in Town"

SPORTS • SPORTS • SPORTS

Football - Nascar - Golf - Baseball

Route 36
Grille & Pub
Idalia Co.
970-354-7444

The Route
STEAKHOUSE

S. Lincoln, Burlington Co.
1-719-346-8790

Hansen Foundation gives college $22,000 grant

The Northwest Kansas Technical College has a $22,000 grant for scholarships and initiatives for the students.

Trustees of the Dane G. Hansen Foundation of Logan made the grant to the college's endowment fund.

College President Ken Clouse said the foundation has helped the college a great deal.

"The Hansen Foundation has been very generous in assisting students with scholarships over the past several years," Clouse said, "and this is the third year in a row that the foundation has sent a grant to the college."

Come Out,
Spooks And Goblins!
Bring Your Mummy!

MOONLIGHT MADNESS

Tuesday, October 28, 5-8 p.m. MDT
Downtown Goodland

- Merchant sales all day throughout town
- Downtown stores will be open until 8 p.m.
- Trick-or-Treat goodie bags for kids, Goodland Police, Crimestoppers, businesses and other organizations.
- Madd Hatter will perform
- Halloween Games
- Children's costume contest sponsored by Kiwanis will be held at Zimmerman Plumbing 1111 Main

This Advertisement provided by The Goodland Star- News. Call Bill or Phyllis, 899-2338, for newspaper results.
See the Friday, October 24, Goodland Star-News for merchant ads.

Winking in the dark is like not advertising.
Only you know what you are doing.

"Learniung how to respond to and master the process of change — and even to excel at it — is a critical leadership skill for the 21st century. Constant, rapid change will be a fact of life for all of us."

Jennifer James

The Goodland Star-News

1205 Main
Goodland, Kan. 67735
785-899-2338

Internet tonight! Call 899-2338.