Spõ Cowboys, Eagles: 'nuff said

By Greg Stover

The Goodland Star-News The Cowboys are set to face their Thomas County rivals, the Colby Eagles, in football action tonight in Cowboy Stadium.

Goodland got back on the winning trail last Friday with a 15-0 win over previously undefeated Ulysses. The Cowbovs are now 5-2 overall and 3-2 in the Northwest Kansas League. The Eagles are 2-5 overall and 0-2 in the league, losing last week to Scott City 28-7.

Coach Tony Diehl said Colby is a talented team with a good passing game. He said the Eagles have an outstanding receiver in Matt Augustine who is major scoring threat. Diehl said their quarterback, Brian Sulzman, has a rifle of an arm and has connected with Augustine on several long passing plays this season. He said Colby has another good receiver in Bruce Arnberger.

Diehl also said both the Eagles offensive and defensive lines are big and they have good-sized linebackers who get physical when defending the run..

Jared Doke has completed 17 of 46 touchdowns. He was intercepted and has recovered two fumbles. once so far this season. Doke also has rushed for 334 yards on 63 carries and scored four touchdowns.

Defensively, the Cowboys are led by Bedore, in his role as linebacker, with 95 total tackles including two sacks and a recovered fumble. Junior defensive end Bret Jarmin has 53 tackles including three sacks. Seven Cowboys, including Bedore and Senior Jordan Bedore leads the Jarmin, each have one interception

Diehl said he believed that because of the long-time rivalry between the schools, especially since Colby can play the spoiler's role for Goodlands' playoff hopes, the downs but missed the last game due Eagles will be up for tonight's game.

Cowgirls in Colby for volley ball sub-state

The Cowgirls volleyball team will takes a 25-match winning streak to Colby on Saturday for the Class 4A sub-state tournament.

Goodland High, 30-2 overall, will face the Indians of Larned (3-28) in the tournament's first match at 1 p.m. (central time) in the Colby High School gym. Should they advance to the second round, the Cowgirls will play the winner of the Pratt-Hugoton match. The Pratt Greenbacks enter the tournament at 12-16 and the Eagles of Hugoton are 13-18.

"Everybody at sub-state has to be taken seriously," Coach Jerry McKee said. "It's single elimination, so you have to take care of each match.'

While admitting at this point, any match, Atwood won the first game team can beat any other team on a given day, McKee mentioned Scott City and Concordia as tough opponents. Scott City enters the tournament with a 26-7 record but has already lost to Goodland twice this season, in September. McKee said Concordia (18-14) has won more Class 4A state titles than any other team and is always a power.

The other two teams in the tour- more outside hitting power."
