High tea served at Edson ranch

By Nadine Kammer

The Colby Free Press

The September 24th meeting of the Brewster United Methodist Women will be remembered as a very special meeting for the members and their guests.

Eighteen ladies were served a "High Tea" luncheon at the Kuhrt Ranch north of Edson.

On arrival hostess Diana Flanders shared the early history of the Kuhrt family and their beautiful home built in 1934. A four course lunch was served by Diana, her husband, Brent, and his parents, Jim and Jan Flanders.

Following the meal, a tour was given of the house and grounds. Antique furniture is displayed throughout the house.

A flock of wild turkeys could be seen outside in this peaceful setting. The unique home will soon be a Bed and Breakfast along with the Kuhrt Ranch Ringneck Resort Hunting Lodge.

Arrangements for the meeting were made by Barbara Springsteen and Bonnie Reid.
