

Music department presents winter concert

A Winter Concert was the theme for the high school music department program presented at the auditorium last Tuesday evening.

The program opened with the high school jazz band playing four songs. Craig Mason had a trumpet solo in Just the Two of Us, and Matt Hurst had a saxophone solo in Jingle Bells.

The Black and Gold choir was up next and sang three selections with Kerek Mason doing a solo in A Stable Lamp is Lighted.

The Men's Chorale had two barbershop songs, My Wild Irish Rose and Good Night, Ladies.

Les Chantes girls choir sang Lullaby of the Angels with a solo by Crista Hawkins. Their selection How Will I Know was choreographed by Katy Hurst.

The X-Pressos had three selections and Megan McCall did the solo in To Where You Are.

The combined choir sang How Can I Keep From Singing with solos by McCall and Lori Redlin.

The concert closed with four selections by the high school concert band.

Les Chantes (above) sing How Will I Know with choreographed by Katy Hurst. Solo performances were by Matt Hurst (top right) in Jingle Bells; Craig Mason (far right) in Just the Two fo Us; Crista Hawkins (center right) Lullaby of the Angels; and Megan McCall of the X-Pressos in To Where You Are.
