Mary Naomi Clark

Mary Naomi Clark, 89, Sharon Springs, a retired secretary, died Thursday, April 26, 2007, at Greeley County Hospital in Tribune.

She was born Feb. 21, 1918, on a farm 17 miles southeast of Wallace, the daughter of David M. and Mattie Ellen (Beal) Price. She graduated from the Red Top Rural School and attended Wallace County Community High School.

She later attended one year and three summer sessions at Fort Hays State University, and taught school before becoming a private secretary.

She had worked in the office of the president at Kansas State University in Manhattan and the Wichita district office of Montgomery Ward, among other places. She worked wherever her husband was stationed in the military, and when he retired on Sept. 1, 1958, they moved back to her parents' home and took up farming.

In December 1976, Mrs. Clark was accepted into the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and she had been treasurer, regent and registrar of the northwest Kansas chapter. She did all of the typing for the first Wallace County History book and wrote several family histories.

Preceding her in death were a son, Don Clark; her parents; a sister, Marguerite Augusta Rannels; and a brother, Eugene Beal Price.

Survivors include her husband, Ray C. Clark; two sons, James Patrick (Nina) Clark and Ray Charles Clark, both of Fort Worth; six grandchildren; and 12 great-grandchildren.

Services will be at 10:30 a.m. today, Tuesday, May 1, 2007, at the Dinas Community Church near Wallace with the Rev. Paul McNall officiating and burial in the Dinas Cemetery.

Visitation was scheduled from 3 to 7 p.m. Monday at Koons Funeral Home in Sharon Springs and before the service at the church.

Memorials may be designated to the church in care of the funeral home in Sharon Springs or at 211 N. Main, Goodland, Kan. 67735-1555.

Music club plans student recital Sunday

For the 84th observance of National Music Week, the Goodland Federated Music Club plans a Junior/Senior Student Recital at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at the Sunrise Christian Church.

The Margaret Martin Piano Award will be presented to a senior piano student. The public is invited, and refreshments will be served after the recital.

"Music has been important throughout history," said Linda Koons, a member of the club's National Music Week committee. "It exerts a strong influence on our everyday lives and has become a powerful means to deepen our worship, express patriotic fervor or to add a joyous atmosphere to happy occasions.

"This year's theme 'Music — lifts all of our spirits worldwide,' encourages us to explore the far-reaching effects of music in our lives and to discover the added dimensions it can bring to the world today."
