Kiwanis Club promotes reading for young students

Club buys books for library at West School

The Goodland Kiwanis Club has given West Elementary School money to buy 26 books for its library. The club donated $170 for the books as part of the Kiwanis International Power of One Book Campaign. Similar events took place across the state, said Goodland Kiwanis President Randy Coleman, as 96 Kansas clubs took part.

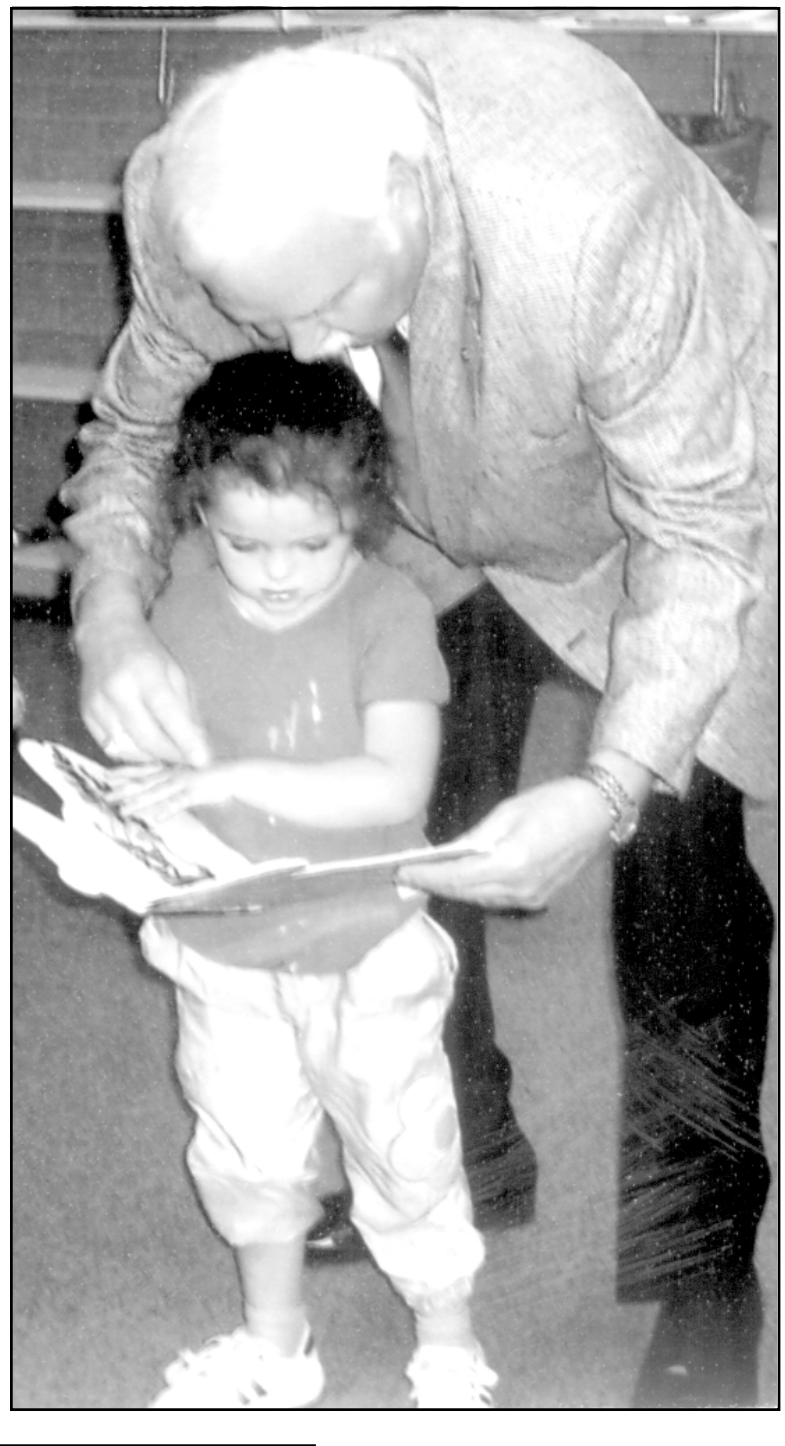

Each club was challenged to identify one school or library in its area and work to buy books to help get youngsters interested in reading. The Goodland club chose West, Coleman said.

The library serves the first and second-graders at West, the pre-school children who meet at the school and the children at the nearby Head Start class. Club members and Amity Ihrig, librarian for kindergarten through eighth grade, compiled a list of 26 books.

Attending the ceremony at West were Superintendent Shelly Angelos, Principal Verna Milnes, Ihrig, Library Technician Michelle Owens, preschool teacher Nona Mason and Head Start Director Carrie Starns.

Representing Kiwanis were Coleman, 12th District Lt. Gov.-elect Brad Schields of Goodland, Goodland Kiwanis founder Clarence Scheopner and the Rev. Gene Tromble, a club member.

Kiwanis International President Nelson Tucker of Chatsworth, Calif., visited the Sunflower State in connection with the campaign, inaugurated early this year by the service organization, Coleman said.
