Practice time again

Temperatures in the high 90s delayed the Cowgirls' first volleyball practice until 8 a.m. on Monday, and Coach Jerry McKee said he will have the girls practice later in the evening to avoid some of the heat. McKee said he thought there would be about 26 girls out this season since the incoming freshman class has fewer than 20 girls. He said that since cheerleading has been declared a sport, girls cannot cheer and play volleyball. The coach said he expects to have four seniors on the team, with the first game on Tuesday, Sept. 4.

Gridiron training starts

Cowboys coach Jonathan Dansel talked to his defensive line about their assignments for different formations. Football practice began at 6:30 a.m. on Monday, and the team will be doing two-a-day workouts most of this week. About 50 young men showed up for the first practice on the practice field east of the Northwest Kansas Technical College auto shop.

Oberlin grad starts second season with Tigers

Oberlin native Lydia Karnopp will begin her second season of college volleyball at Fort Hays State University Friday, Aug. 24, in Memphis, when the Lady Tigers play in the Christian Brothers University Tournament.

Karnopp, a 2006 graduate of Decatur Community High School, played in 16 games for the Tigers last year, getting 16 kills and 12 blocks. She had a season-high six kills against Pittsburg State University on Oct. 27, exactly a month after getting five kills against Bethany College.

Karnopp made the All-Northwest Kansas League team her senior year as a Red Devil and was a state Class 3A second-team pick by the Kansas Volleyball Association.

A week after playing in Memphis, the team travels to St. Joseph, Mo., to play in the Ramada Inn Invitational at Missouri Western State University.

On Tuesday, Sept. 4, the Tigers will have their home opener against Newman University. Eight days later Fort Hays State will begin play in the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association with a home match against the Lady Blues of Washburn University.

Last year, the Lady Tigers finished 3-25 overall and 1-18 in the conference. Fort Hays was picked ninth in the conference coaches' preseason poll this year. Washburn, with six returning starters, was picked to win the title.

Jaime Cabral is a new assistant coach for the team. A 2004 graduate of Western Oregon University, he comes to Kansas from Alaska, where he was volleyball coach at Sitka High School for three seasons.
