in our one and only playoff game last year. However, the positive out of that game was we had a chance to play the 4A state champion and see what good teams do every snap of the ballgame — execute and play hard.”

The boys start the season healthy and strong, he said, as more than 40 team members worked out in the weight room every day this summer.

“This has kept the boys relatively healthy and ensures that the Cowboys will start the season with a full roster,” he said. “The boys start the season with a game at home on Friday, Aug. 31, against Atwood.”

Coach Dandel said he is looking forward to the season.

“We have some really good teams on the schedule again this year, as is every year playing in this league,” he said. “There aren’t any powder puffs that I can see. We have a lot of respect to gain back this season, and we will do just that.”

Cowgirls Volleyball

The Cowgirls volleyball team will open the season on Tuesday with a quad at Max Jones Fieldhouse including Hays High, Thomas More Prep-Marian of Hays and Burlington High.

Matches will be held on the two courts at Max Jones beginning at 3:45 p.m.

Coach Jerry McKee said the girls have been working on conditioning and skill development, adding he has about 26 girls out this year.

Five seniors are returning from last year’s squad, Ashley Christians, Jessica Swager, Shawnie Butts, Jennifer Cole and Andrea Wolak.

McKee said he hopes to improve on the 15-18 record the Cowgirls had last year, losing to the Colby Lady Eagles in the substate finals.

The Cowgirls varsity will travel to Matchebuf Catholic High School in Denver for a tournament beginning at 9 a.m. on Saturday, Sept. 8. The junior varsity will be in Leoti for a tournament beginning at 8 a.m. that day.

The Cowgirls will be home for a quad at 3:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 11, at Max Jones.

Cowgirls Tennis

The Cowgirls tennis team has four returning letter winners among six players returning from last year, just enough for a varsity squad, says Coach Wallace Hansen.

The team faced tough competition at Cimarron, then played Tuesday at Phillipsburg.

The Cowgirls’ four returning letter winners are all juniors: Shonna Webster, a two-
