club news

October

The regular October monthly meeting of the Ruleton Eager Beavers was Saturday, Oct. 13, at the 4-H building. President Devin Mangus called the meeting to order. Roll call was "What is your favorite candy?" and was answered by 18 members, four leaders, seven parents and four guests.

Unfinished business was that the council members had been asked that the due date for record books and KAAs be returned October 1.

New business was the election of officers with president being Devin Mangus; vice president Adam Duell; secretary Sydney Winston; treasurer Mindi Keith; parliamentarian Corbin Townsend; reporter Chelsie Gausman; 4-H council members Devin Mangus, Michael Johnson and Winston; song leaders Dani Mangus, Nicole Sederstrom and Saige Vandiver; historians Keith and Kathy Wood; and leaders, Coleen and Steve Duell, Amy Sederstrom, Kevin and Barb Winston; and recreation leaders, Skyler Thompson and Sierra Vandiver.

The program had Dani Mangus singing a song called "She'll be Coming 'Round the Mountain when She Comes" with Devin Mangus accompanying her on the guitar. Nicole gave a demonstration on how to saddle a horse and Blaine demonstrated how to make toy equipment and farm. Holly Wilkening gave a project talk on we're going to the dogs.

Cody Hooker led the club in the balloon game.

Announcements were: Nov. 1 - enrollment due, Nov. 2 - officer training, Nov. 4 - Achievement Awards Banquet and Nov. 10 - next meeting.

Refreshments were provided by the Mangus family.

November

The regular monthly meeting of the Ruleton Eager Beavers was held on Saturday, Nov. 10, at the 4-H building. President Devin Mangus called the meeting to order. Roll call was, what are you thankful for? It was answered by 15 members and three leaders.

There was no unfinished business.

New business consisted of discussion on the Christmas party. Cody Hooker moved to have the party on Dec. 30 and to let the committee put the activities together.

The program had Dani Mangus, Saige Vandiver and Sierra Vandiver leading the club in a song called "God Bless America" with Devin Mangus accompanying them on the guitar. Sydney Winston gave a project talk on horse colors. And to wrap it up, Devin Mangus gave his speech for the Voice of Democracy Contest.

Announcements were that the next meeting would be Genesis.

Refreshments were served by the Duell family.

Hospital auxiliary wins award for year

The Goodland Regional Medical Center Auxiliary received the Gold Award of Excellence at the Hospital Auxiliaries of Kansas convention.

Auxiliary President Deb Lucas with members Anita Coleman and Shelby Miller got the award on Thursday, Nov. 15, at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Wichita. The group helped with the annual health fair, cancer screenings and the Slice of Life Benefit Golf Tournament. They also recognized the hospital staff during National Hospital Week.

Fund raising projects included a potato bar in March. The group donates money to buy equipment and materials for different departments.

The award is given to auxiliaries that donate to a health career scholarship, are involved in a health related community service, sponsor special projects and other activities. The Goodland auxiliary has earned the award for the last seven years.

"We are getting ready for our annual potato bar in March," said Auxiliary President Lucas. "It has been very successful for us."

"The auxiliary has changed a lot in the last few years," she said. "We are doing so much more than just giving out juice."

For information about the group, call Tina Goodwin at (785) 890-6036 or Lucas at (785) 899-5328.

matters of record

The following accidents were investigated by the Goodland Police Department.
