

Kids rock at concert

By Pat Schiefen

Central Elementary School fourth graders rocked their way through their last vocal concert of the year Monday night at the high school auditorium.

The group sang songs that talked about how some were enthusiastic about learning while others were dazed by all the information. Some thought they needed a vacation.

The girls thought the boys were looking at them in the lunch line but all the boys were thinking about was the pizza and if any was going to be left for them.

The group sang about how exercise was good for them and how important it was to walk the talk as the song said about what they did.

For the final number several boys donned wigs with long hair for more rock and roll.

Char Avila was the group's music teacher.

X-Pressos sing to packed house

The final concert for the 2008 X-Pressos was sung to a packed house on Thursday, May 15, at Goodland High School. The program was "Back to the Good Old Days."

The guest performer was 2004 Goodland High School graduate Josef Felver.

Felver went to Southwestern College in Winfield where he sang in the college choir, which sang with the Wichita Opera and in Carnegie Hall in New York.

His field of study was physics, and he graduated with high honors and will work on his doctorate at Washington State University.

"I never imagined I would be back on stage or in green tights, again," Felver said.

He sang a number from "Phantom of the Opera" and was the master of ceremonies for the night.

The show choir sang some 70s soul as well as 50s and 60s tunes.

Graduating members sang solos, including Forrest Trachsel with "Rodeo" and a special appearance by Charlene Avila, Halli Stone "I Miss You," Andrew Philbrick "Take a Bow" accompanied by GERALYN PARKER, AMANDA AMTHOR "Let it Be," CHRIS IRVIN "The Best is Yet to Come," SAMANTHA RAYMER "But I Do Love You," CALLEE WARREN "The Way I Am," JAKE KLING "Crazy Little Thing Called Love," REN SCHERLING accompanied by his brother IAN SCHERLING "Sittin', Waitin', Wishin'." Ashley Christians and Tiffany Wing were also senior members of the choir.

Others members of the choir are Julica Bonsall, Brennen Clouse, Kaitlin Fugleberg, Bryan Gray, Devin Mangus, Taylor McLemore, Tanner Oharah, Dallas Price, Courtney Sheldon, Kade Sheldon and Shonna Webster.

correction

The following corrections need to be made to list of the 2008 Goodland High School graduates' awards and scholarships on page 11 of the Tuesday, May 20, issue of The Goodland Star-News.

Heidi Yonkey also got a Pete Henry Foundation scholarship, Jacob Kling got a Ralph Toppliff Memorial Scholarship and not the Ray W. Townsend Memorial scholarship.

Marissa Acuff also got the Ray W. Townsend Memorial scholarship.

This was due to a reporting error.

In the May 13 edition of The Goodland Star-News the photo credit information under the Kansas Ornithological Society photo on Page 10, listed the photographer incorrectly. The photographer was Cheryl K. Miller from Wichita State University instead of the Wichita Eagle.

This was due to a reporting error.
