Grant Junior High honors top athletes, student citizens

Jaycee Herl and Dallas DeLaRosa were named winners of the Kansas High School Activities Association Citizenship Award from Grant Junior High.

Boy, girl selected as top Mustangs

The Grant Junior High Girls Athlete of the Year was M'Lynn Hinger, while the Boys' Athlete of the Year was Riley Ohara, said Principal Steve Raymer.

The awards are based on participation in six sports, a grade average of 2.5 or better, attendance and general contribution to the sports program, Raymer said. They are voted on by the teachers, athletic director and coaches. Winners' names are added to a plaque that hangs in the school trophy case.

The Grant Citizenship Awards for the year went to Jaycee Herl and Dallas DeLaRosa.

The Citizenship Award is a Kansas State High School Activities Association program, Raymer said; it can be awarded each year to one boy and one girl.

"There is a list of qualifications the students are judged on," he said. "After all the nominations are in, all the staff vote, and the top ones get the award."

Citizenship is judged on reverence for the flag, tolerance of others, academics and respect for others, among other things, he said.

Representing the Goodland Elks Lodge, Zona Price gave each of the citizenship winners a $50 savings bond, and their names also will be added to a plaque in the trophy case.
