

Sherman, Cheyenne Counties get money for 911 systems

In an effort to assist cell phone and voice over internet protocol (VoIP) users in calling 911 in emergency situations, Governor Kathleen Sebelius and the Kansas Wireless Enhanced Advisory Board (KWE-AB) today announced $3,623,850 in funding for 47 Public Safety Answering Points (PSAPs) from the State Wireless Enhanced 911 (E911) grant program.

"Kansans need to know they can count on getting the help they need during emergencies," Sebelius said. "This funding is critical in locating wireless callers in emergency situations."

Funding from the E911 state grant assists PSAPs in implementing wireless enhanced 911 services; purchasing equipment or upgrading and modifying equipment; and providing training to operate the equipment, including costs to train personnel to provide effective services for those who have communication disabilities.

The grant funds are generated from a 25-cent-monthly fee collected from each wireless service account in Kansas and one percent from the retail price of any prepaid wireless service sold in the state. Counties with population of less than 75,000 or any city located within such a county are eligible for E911 state grant funds.

Recipients of the 2008 Wireless Enhanced 911 State Grant:

- Cheyenne - Cheyenne County Sheriff's Office $26,333
- Logan-Gove - Logan-Gove County Emergency 911 $106,353
- Sherman - Sherman County Communications $10,854

Suggestions to help prevent burn out of business owners

It's not uncommon for small business owners to feel burned out. Here are some things you can do to avoid it:

- Take care of yourself. If you're run down, you're more likely to feel burned out. Be sure to eat right, get adequate sleep, exercise and de-stress regularly.
- Mix things up. If you're in a rut, do things different for a day. Take a different path to the office, park in a different spot, go somewhere new for lunch. You might be surprised by what you've been missing.
- Learn how to better manage your time. You can't add hours to your day, but you can use the hours you have better.

- Learn to say no. It can be difficult, but not having boundaries and limits is a short road to burnout.
- Laugh! Laughing is good for you and can make work fun and enjoyable.
- Don't be embarrassed to ask for help. No one can do it all. If you're overwhelmed, look for people who can help lighten the load.
