

Ruleton eager beavers

June 2008

The regular monthly meeting of the Ruleton Eager Beavers was held on Tuesday, June 10th, at 5:30 p.m. at the 4-H building. President Devin Mangus called the meeting to order. There were 10 members, five leaders, and six visitors present.

There was no unfinished business.

New business had Dani Mangus moving that we end our Club Tour at Bellamy Farms with a picnic. Sage seconded. Charlene Mangus volunteered to check with them about a time and approve the date. Motion carried. Sage moved to pay the Jr. Leaders the $28 for the hot dogs. Cody seconded and motion carried.

Coleen announced that the Club Tour would be held Saturday July 12, beginning at 8 a.m. She asked that members please call if they want the tour to visit their house.

Announcements: Fishing Clinic - Tuesday, June 24; Fair books at Extension office or on-line; Pre-Fair entries and Style Review scripts due Friday, July 11; Dog Show - Saturday, July 26; Horse Show - Friday, Aug. 1; and 4-H BBQ - Friday, Aug. 8.

Kayler moved and Michael seconded to adjourn the meeting.

July 2008

The regular monthly meeting of the Ruleton Eager Beavers was held on Saturday, July 12, at 8 a.m. at the home of Cody and Truman Hooker's to start off the Club Tour. There were 11 members, three leaders, and eight parents present. Those present proceeded to the following homes: Jarrett family, Mangus family; Duell family; Rietchek family; Winston family; Johnson family; Sederstrom family

After the tour the club traveled to Bellamy farms for a pot luck lunch with the club supplying hot dogs and hamburgers. Club members enjoyed fishing, paddle boating, canoeing, and water balloon fights.

President Devin Mangus called for a brief meeting to discuss upcoming events for the fair.

New business: The club will have a float in the parade on Saturday, Aug. 2. Line up will begin at 4 p.m. Members need to wear cut-off shorts, white T-shirts, and red bandanas. Members need to meet at 8 a.m. on Sunday, Aug. 3, to decorate our booth.

Meeting adjourned.

August 2008

The Ruleton Eager Beavers met 4 times during the month of August. Due to the fair and related fair events, there were no formal meetings held.

Members met Saturday, Aug. 2, for the fair parade. The Club float did not place but everyone had a good time.

Members met again on Sunday, Aug. 3, to construct our Fair Booth. The Ruleton Eager Beavers received a blue ribbon on their booth.

The Ruleton Eager Beavers also met again as they were in charge of the flag ceremony on Tuesday, Aug. 5, meeting at 7:30 a.m. that morning. Thanks to the 10 members, three leaders, and six parents that attended.

To round out the month of August and fair activities, the club assisted the Glendale Livewires with the Appreciation BBQ. Members met and set up at 3 p.m. Thanks to all who helped make this event a success. The Eager Beavers will be in charge of the BBQ next year.

Next meeting will be Saturday, Sept. 20th, at the 4-H building.

September

The regular monthly meeting of the Ruleton Eager Beavers was held Saturday, Sept. 20, at the 4-H Building. President Devin Mangus called the meeting to order. The club opened the meeting by saying the Pledge of Allegiance and the 4-H Pledge.

Roll call was answered by What You Entered at the Fair. There were 17 members, four leaders and seven parents present. Minutes from the July and August meeting were read and approved.

There was no unfinished business.

New business consisted of discussion on amounts due to the 4-H Council and Charlene Mangus.

The program consisted of a song by Dani, Nicole and Saige and accompanied by Devin. A project talk on Performing Arts was given by Dani Mangus and she then sang "Our Song". For recreation the game of Knots was played.

Announcements consisted of Record Books due to the office on Thursday, Sept. 23, Achievement Awards Banquet on Sunday, Nov. 2, Enrollment forms due Monday, Nov. 3, 4-H Open House scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 5, Officer Training on Thursday, Nov. 6, and the next Council Meeting on Thursday, Nov. 6, following officer training.

Mindy Keith asked the club if they would be interested in hauling off the aluminum cans collected by Orschelns. Discussion was held and Mindy was to check on further details.

Refreshments were served by the Mangus family with the next meeting scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 11, at the 4-H Building.

Tour, program Sunday on raid

Dr. Richard Little Bear, president at Chief Dull Knife College, will speak at 3 p.m. (Mountain Time) on Sunday at the Bohemian Hall at the Last Indian Raid Museum in Oberlin, following the tour of the sites of the Last Indian Raid, which begins at 1 p.m. (Mountain Time) on Sunday.

The Oberlin Arts and Humanities Commission is hosting the tour in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the museum and the 130th anniversary of the raid. Those attending will leave the museum at 1 p.m. (Mountain Time) to tour the sites where the raids took place. Calvin Ufford will tell about the various sites. Everyone is encouraged to car pool.

The group will return at 3 p.m. (Mountain Time) for refreshments and to hear Dr. Little Bear speak from the Indian's point of view on the raids.

Dr. Little Bear was born in Lame Deer, Mont., on the Northern Cheyenne Reservation. He attended school in Busby, Mont., to the ninth grade. He graduated from Lind High School in Washington and attended community colleges in Washington and Bethel College in Newton. He served in the U.S. Army from 1965-1967 and was honorably discharged.

He earned a Master's Degree in school administration at Montana State University and a Doctor of Education degree at Boston University. He worked in Anchorage, Alaska until August of 1999 when he returned to the Northern Cheyenne Reservation as the Chief Dull Knife College Dean of Cultural Affairs until he was selected President in September 1999. The Cheyenne language is Dr. Little Bear's first language. He learned to read and write Cheyenne and considers that his greatest academic achievement. His wife, Janice is a Senior Advisor for Northwest Regional Educational Laboratory in Portland, Ore.

Following his talk, the group will leave the museum and travel to the J.R. Ginther Ranch west of Achilles in Rawlins County for a buffalo barbecue at a cost of $6.50 per person. The barbecue will start at 4:30 p.m. (Mountain Time). Those planning to attend are asked to call the museum at (785) 475-2712; Ella at (785) 475-3557 or Mary (785) 470-0218 by Friday.

The speaker and tour are a season ticket event or tickets can be purchased at the museum before the group leaves at $10 for adults, $5 for grades 1-12 or $25 per family. For those wanting only to hear the speaker, the price will be half the above prices.

Program to help inmates reconnect with families

"Nurturing Fathers," a 12-week program taught twice weekly by Kit Carson Correctional Center employee Sabrina Erhart, helps inmates develop a new appreciation for their roles as fathers while strengthening family ties.

The program reconnects the fathers with their children while incarcerated, re-establishing their importance as parents and promoting a more seamless transition to the home environment upon their release.

On Sunday, Aug. 14, the correctional center hosted Nurturing Fathers Family Day for inmates enrolled in the program. The fathers and their children and other family members spent the entire afternoon together. The session began with structured games and other activities, followed by snacks and family visitation time, all supervised by Erhart and other members of the center staff including Misty Burian, Soraya Frank and Tiffany Davis. Approximately six fathers and 10 children attended.

"In the beginning, I was very apprehensive about being so closely involved with the offenders in this manner, and it was pretty obvious they were not very comfortable with me," Said Erhart. "However, over the past few weeks, these men have become cooperative during the program meetings and group discussions.
