Homesteader's family has reunion

The descendants of B.W. Baird, who homesteaded in Thomas County in 1893, gathered on Saturday, Sept. 20, at the Howard Johnson Hotel in Goodland.

The day was spent visiting, taking pictures, special music and a skit of two talented women that portrayed themselves as candidates running for president. They were Lorraine McPain and Priscilla Hotomama. (They may be what our country needs.)

A delicious buffet dinner was served to 74 at noon by the staff of the restaurant.

The items that everyone brought was sold to the highest bidder, with our very own family auctioneer Bruce Baird, who really got people bidding. This is a regular thing we do to raise money to pay for the next reunion's expenses and a lot of fun.

Those attending from Brewster were LaVelle and Erma Palmgren; Betty Jo Baird; Bruce and Donita Baird and J.R. and Heath; Jaylen Reid; John Faber, Jack and Mary Faber; Darrell and Jackie Jorgensen and Jace and Alicia; Lyman; and JoAnne Goetsch. Others attending were Robert and Gertie Zwegardt of St. Francis; Rodney Baird of Salem, Ore.; Roger and Paula Brughelli of Salem, Ore.; Ben and Sue Baird of Liberty Mo.; Jim and Sue Baird, Perry and Terry Baird and Julia, Mike and Denece Bahe and

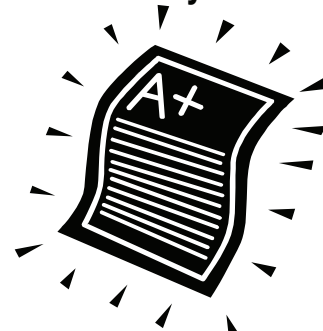

Hayden, Mike and Lorie Garret and Tanae and Devon, all of Goodland; Pauline Baird of Winona, Stephen and Debra Bear and Brittany and Austin of Levant; Mike and Autumn O'Brien of Colby; Casey and Tesha Osborn and Alex of Sheridan, Wyo.; Greg and Lynette Colvin of Wiley, Colo.; Trevor Colvin of Buena Vista, Colo.; Harold Baird and Mike of Hanford, Calif.; Ron and Kathy Thompson of Almena; Bob Knake of Syracuse, Neb.; Gene and Shirley Moherman of Manhattan; Eileen Baird Kennedy and Linda of Highland Ranch, Colo.;

Kellie Kirchner and Kristi Nissen and Eric, Chanda Grogan, Madison and Cameron and Elizabeth Eckler, all of Wichita; Doug O'Neal, Jeff and Pheobe Ferland and Thea, Bryce and Jessie of Hays; and Billi Forrester and Kellie Plessinger of Aurora, Colo.

The next reunion will be held in three years on September 2011 with Chanda Grogan and her brothers hosting.
