

Pretty in pink

Arlo Hansen picked up his pink pedal tractor on Thursday, Oct. 23, that he bid on and won at the Sherman County Relay for Life on Friday, Aug. 15, at the Northwest Kansas Technical College. The tractor was donated by Yost Farm Supply and was pink in honor of breast cancer awareness. Hansen said his granddaughter loved pink but was too old for the toy and his grandson was the right age but Hansen didn't think he would like pink. Photo by Pat Schiefen/The Goodland Star-News

Hays American Legion post to host veteran career fair

The Kansas Department of Commerce will host a Veteran Career Fair from 3-6 p.m. (Mountain Time) on Wednesday, at the American Legion Post 173, 13th and Canterbury Road, in Hays.

The Veteran Career Fair will provide Kansas veterans a chance to meet dozens of western Kansas employers - including Northern Natural Gas Company, Natoma Corporation and Dillons Food Stores - who are looking to hire for various full- and part-time positions. Career Fair attendees will also receive resume-writing and job-search assistance, as well as information on certification, training and educational opportunities for veterans.

All military veterans and their families are invited to attend. The event is free, and pre-registration is not required.

The department offers employment and training services to eligible veterans through its statewide system of KANSASWORKS workforce centers.

Veterans services available at the centers include: labor market information, certification, career planning, resume-writing assistance and employer contacts. Visit KANSASWORKS.com for details.

Help to review Medicare drug plans available at Goodland Public Library

The time of the year when Medicare patients with a prescription drug plan can check on the changes on their current plan and can change plans if they want to.

Carol Guyer, a Senior Health Insurance Counselor of Kansas, will be available at the Kansas Room of the Goodland Public Library on Monday, Nov. 3, to Friday, Nov. 7, to help anyone compare their current drug plan to the new 2009 plans.

She will be available to help people enroll in a new drug plan from Monday, Dec. 1, to Friday, Dec. 5.

The service is provided by the Sherman County Health Department. Call (785) 890-5908 or (785) 821-1626 for information.
