Four-member band to play at Oberlin

Highway 385 Band, referred to as "The true voice of Middle America" will perform at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 22, at the Oberlin Gateway Center.

They plays a little bluegrass, a little country, 50's rock'n'roll, some 70's music, then moves into something entirely different. The band includes four members who enjoy each other's company from the High Plains of eastern Colorado and western Kansas. When the band gets together, it's traveling down Highway 385, so that's how they got their name.

Members of the band include: Dan Steerman, mandolin, banjo, guitar and vocals; Terry Souther, guitar, vocals; EJ Carpenter, guitar, mandolin, bass, vocals; and James Lightle, bass, dobro and vocals. They are a talented group whose members have been playing music since childhood.

This is an Oberlin Arts and Humanities season ticket event or $10 for adults, and $5 for students grades 1-12. For details, call Ella Betts at (785) 475-3557 or Mary Henzel (785) 470-0218.

Food bank needs help

Members of the Ruleton Eager Beavers 4-H Club helped put food on the shelves at Genesis with their donation of $100 to Linda and Mel Pfau. They would also like to challenge other clubs and groups to help Genesis out. "This has been an exceptionally hard year," said Linda Pfau, one of the directors of Genesis, the local food bank. "We are about two months short of food." The other directors of the program are Mel Pfau, Joy Hayden and Richard Hayden.

• business tips

Will you show a profit for this tax year? If so, what are some things you could buy to reduce your tax liability? Is that printer on its last leg? Do you need to stock up on office supplies?

Don't be foolish in your spending, but do be proactive in making the most of your profits. Would you rather hand that money over to the government or use it for things you need?
