The future groom graduated from Topeka West High School in 1998.

He works for Concrete Supply of Topeka.

Office returns unclaimed property

The Kansas State Treasurer's Office is pleased to be celebrating their 30 years of service to Kansas residents. The Unclaimed Property Department was founded under the Unclaimed Property Act of 1979. Under then State Treasurer Joan Finney the division began collecting and returning Kansans unclaimed property and this division has continued under six subsequent state treasurer's administrations.

"As one of the original consumer protection programs, our unclaimed property division has made incredible progress," said State Treasurer Dennis McKinney. "It is not always easy to track down the rightful owners of property sometimes generations later. I commend them for their service to Kansans."

In recognition of this special milestone the state treasurer returned $341.28 to Meggin Mattal of Topeka. The treasurer also presented a plaque to office staff in recognition of their work.

The unclaimed property department has eight full-time staff members that work to look for and return unclaimed money and safe deposit boxes. Since inception more than $132 million has been returned to owners and rightful heirs. The biggest amount returned to one owner was $346,922.92 in 2007. It was 1997 when the office first began offering the option to search for unclaimed property on the web. And in 2005 the option to claim property online became available.

"Kansans value private property rights and as custodian of this unclaimed property we take the responsibility to reunite people with their assets very seriously," said McKinney. "Our staff works hard to return as much as possible," he explained.

Each year thousands of people lose track of their bank accounts, cash, stocks, bonds, refunds, royalties, safe deposit boxes and other property. People move and forget to furnish their bank, broker, employer or insurance company with a forwarding address. It is the treasurer's job to locate the rightful owners and heirs to the over $209 million in unclaimed assets and more than 10,000 safe deposit boxes that are currently being held by the State of Kansas.

Making a claim is free and easy. There are no fees involved in searching for or claiming cash and property. To search, a last name is required and a first name is recommended.

To search for unclaimed property

Couple dances to raise money

Eric Mai originally from Goodland and his wife, Jordan, are among six couples who are competing to raise money for the local Habitat for Humanity of Oswego, N.Y. The couples have been taking dance lessons from a dancing instructor, so the Dancing with the Stars competition promises great entertainment for two nights in February.

Jordan is a volunteer board member with the local Habitat chapter in Oswego. The couple says, "We are excited and honored to participate and contribute to an organization like Habitat. We've seen firsthand the impact it has on our community by putting families in need into affordable homes." Although this is a local competition, the Mai's have taken their fundraising efforts to their hometowns and are asking friends and family to help.

Every dollar is equal to one vote, so the more money a couple raises, the more votes they get during the competition. To make a donation go to www.oswegohabitat.org and click "make a contribution." Or send a check no later than Saturday to Oswego County Habitat, 17 Brandan Trail, Osego, N.Y. 13126.
