Talent show, art contest coming

The days are ticking off before the third annual Goodland's Got Talent talent show and art contest. The event will be at 6 p.m. on Saturday, April 10, at the Goodland High School Auditorium.

The audience determines the winners. The doors will open at 5 p.m. for the voting on the art. Categories for the talent show are tiny (third grade and under), junior (fourth through sixth grade), teen (junior high and high school) and adult. Entries are due by today. Any type of talent is welcome but the event is a family event. There is a $25 entry fee per act. The best of show will get $100 and first place in each age group will get $50.

The art contest is for junior high and up and is open media. There is a $5 entry fee per piece. Art will be displayed at the high school auditorium the day of the talent show for voting purposes. Winners will get cash prizes.

Coloring pages for elementary students and younger will decorate the walls of the talent show.

A live/silent auction of art will take place after the talent show. Auction items will include a framed photograph and other water color prints. Elwyn Vatcher will paint a water color live during the show which will be auctioned. Clayton Hoss made a metal art butterfly that will be part of the auction.

Reserved seat tickets are $7 for adults and $4 for 13 and under. They are also available online at www.Goodlandcal.net or www.rightcombinationdance.com or in person at the Goodland Methodist Church, 12th and Sherman, or Homestead Realty, 1023 Main.

The first talent show kicked off in the spring of 2007. The proceeds of the show go to the Brianna Linin Memorial Scholarship.

Janda Linin, Brianna's mother said, "Our family knew since before Brianna died that we wanted to do something that gave back to the community since the community was so wonderful to us at such a tough time. It took me about two years to come across what that should be. A talent show seemed perfectly because it is unique (except for the Flatlander event) it fit Brianna's personality perfectly and it is an opportunity where any age or any type of business or community group could participate at whatever level."

Brianna Linin was diagnosed with a malignant and fatal brain tumor in June 2004. She died on March 4, 2005. She attended kindergarten in Goodland until one week prior to her death. Brianna would be a fifth grader and would have graduated in May 2017. It was decided that the first person to receive the scholarship to a member of her class. It is hoped that the scholarship will continue for many years. After last year's fundraiser the fund has over $11,000.

The scholarship is a designated fund under the Sherman County Community Foundation which makes gifts tax deductible.

Members of the committee organizing the talent show are Brian and Janda Linin, Calli McDaniell, Darren and Jessica Kannady, Deedi Hoss-Dorn, Kim Linin, Kim Horinek, Koren Dechant, Tiffini Overstreet, Travis Blake and Wendy Wellman.

Donations to the scholarship can be sent to the Sherman County Community Foundation, Box 888, Goodland.
