

Hays Medical Center offers education hours

Hays Medical Center, North Central Kansas Technical College, Fort Hays State University and Nu Zeta Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau International will hold its Sixth Annual Multidisciplinary Practice Conference on Evidence-Based Practice: Strategies to Improve Healthcare on Wednesday, April 28. The conference will be held at the Memorial Union Black and Gold Room at Fort Hays State University, 600 Park Street, Hays. Registration begins at 7:30 a.m. (Mountain Time) and the program runs from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. (Mountain Time).

Topics included in the program are: evidence-based practice and outcomes; mental health in simulation, collaboration in health assessment; intimidation and disruptive behavior in the healthcare setting, healthy work environments for acute care nurses; nurse practitioners adherence to guidelines investigation and improving bedside reporting in the intensive care unit.

This program is designed for nurses and other interested healthcare professionals. The conference can provide 6.5 hours of continuing education credit for continuing nursing education credit, respiratory therapy and athletic training.

Paperwork will be provided to submit for physical therapy, occupational therapy and social worker credit.

Fee for the program is $60. Student fees are $10 (must show proof of student status). Registration must be received by Monday, April 19, to avoid a late fee of $10. To register call (800) 248-0073 extension 5500 or email dmclaren@haysmed.com.

Different approach can attract customers

As a small business taking on the big businesses, you can't undercut their prices. You can't match their advertising budget. You can't offer the variety of products they can. But, you can reach your customers in a way that big businesses can't.

Offer more than products. Offer information and relationship. Don't just sell hammers and nails; help your customers build their homes. Don't just sell pictures; help your customers capture memories. Don't just sell curtains and wallpaper; help your customers make a house into a home.

Bigger isn't always better, but it's up to you.
