Facility recognizes its volunteers

During 2009 volunteers did 1872 hours of volunteer work at the Good Samaritan Society - Sherman County. The facility is recognizing volunteers during Volunteer Week from Sunday to Saturday, April 18 to 24.

Some of the volunteer opportunities at the center include reading to residents, singing, playing music, dancing, worship services and walks outside.

“We recognize our volunteers throughout the year but National Volunteer week is a special time to celebrate their gifts and talents,” says Administrator Pam Black. “Volunteers play a key role in the Christian mission and ministry of Good Samaritan Society - Sherman County.”

The center is part of the Evangelical Lutheran Good Samaritan Society, a not-for-profit organization that owns and operates more than 240 long-term care centers and retirement living centers across the country.
