The dedication of the Boyington Arena for the Northwest Tech rodeo team was on Wednesday, Sept. 15. The day was also the 90th birthday of John Boyington, who with his family donated the arena to the college.

Mr. Boyington who is in a wheel chair got help to get on a horse. A back board was used to get him onto the horse.

Loretta Boyington said the arena was used by her sons and daughters to get ready for Little Britches Rodeo events. Loretta and John Boyington's children are Eldon Boyington of Brewster, John Boyington of Phillipsburg, Toni Ackerman of Brewster and a daughter, Georgia Plant of Wichita.

His children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren including a three-year-old great-granddaughter joined him in a ride around the ring and for pictures.

The college had cleaned up and renovated the unused arena for the rodeo team coached by Lester and Brenda Cress. The team members include Brittany Gilbert of Alliance, Neb.; Cole Miller of Alma, Neb.; Harley Bennett of Goodland; John Meitl of Dresden; Justin Forell of Colorado City, Colo.; Kayla Scheetz of Lenora and Tyrel Hoffman of Dighton.

This is the first year for rodeo at Northwest Tech.

Daughter Toni Ackerman said she was so pleased to see how much work the college had done and to see it fixed up was a gift to the family.

Northwest Tech Rodeo Team members include (not in order) Cole Miller, Harley Bennett, John Meitl, Justin Forell and Tyrel Hoffman who were present at the rodeo arena dedication held on Wednesday, Sept. 15.
