

Cowboys beat Eagles in rain delayed homecoming

Friday night was a later one than most expected with a two and a half hour rain delayed the game until a 9 o'clock kickoff.

When the Cowboys homecoming game did kickoff, the Cowboys were ready and beat the rival Colby Eagles 38-22.

"This was one felt great." Coach Kent Teeter said after the long night.

The stands on both sides of the field were filled with fans about 22 minutes before the planned kickoff, but the announcers said the game was being delayed by a storm with lightning that was moving into the area. The field was cleared and everyone waited as the storm hit dropping about .25 inches of rain along with some close cloud to ground lightning strikes that made everyone happy they had taken cover in the high school cafeteria, under the stadium stands and at Max Jones Fieldhouse.

The storm took a long time to move out of the area, and based on the Kansas High School Activity Association policy the officials had to wait about 30 minutes after the last lightning was seen. The game was scheduled to begin at 6:30 p.m., but finally got started about 9 p.m.

In the first quarter, Colby's Ryan Parker took the ball from 3 yards out on a 12-play 79 yard drive for the night's first score giving the Eagles a 6-0 lead.

The intensity Goodland had before the delay was hard to recapture, but they did starting in the second quarter. Cowboy Kelly Pearson would finish off a 17-play 77 yard drive with a 1 yard touchdown run. Austin Avelar made the extra point to give the Cowboys a 7-6 lead.

The Cowboys would score again when quarterback Reed Bellamy threw a 9 yard touchdown to Brock Wilkens on a 7-play 82 yard drive. The extra point was missed making it 13-6.

Parker for Colby would respond before the half ended with a 45 yard sprint for the touchdown on a 5 play 64 yard drive to close it to 13-2. Colby capped off the scoring with Cowboy running back Nathan Deeds (22) pushes toward the goal line in the second quarter against Colby on Friday. The Cowboys were able to push the ball across to take a 7-6 lead. The Cowboys won the game 38-22. At halftime the Homecoming King Chris Bustillos and Homecoming Queen Jade Herl were crowned. a Andrew Flanigan run for the two point conversion to take a 14-13 lead at halftime.

In the third quarter the Cowboys would take over. Pearson would do his thing on special teams once again. This time taking a punt return 45 yards for the score to retake the lead, Nathan Deeds would catch the two point conversion from Bellamy to give the Cowboys a 21-14 lead.

Pearson would finish off a career night with another 1 yard touchdown run on a 6-play 28-yard drive after Miller recovered a squibbed kickoff at the Eagle 25. Avelar kicked the extra point to make it 28-14.

Bellamy ran in a touchdown from 6 yards following through on a 9-play 56 yard drive that began after an interception by Dillon Trachsel. Avelar would kick the extra point to make it 35-14. In the fourth quarter Avelar kicked a 25-yard field goal. He was one for three attempts on the night.

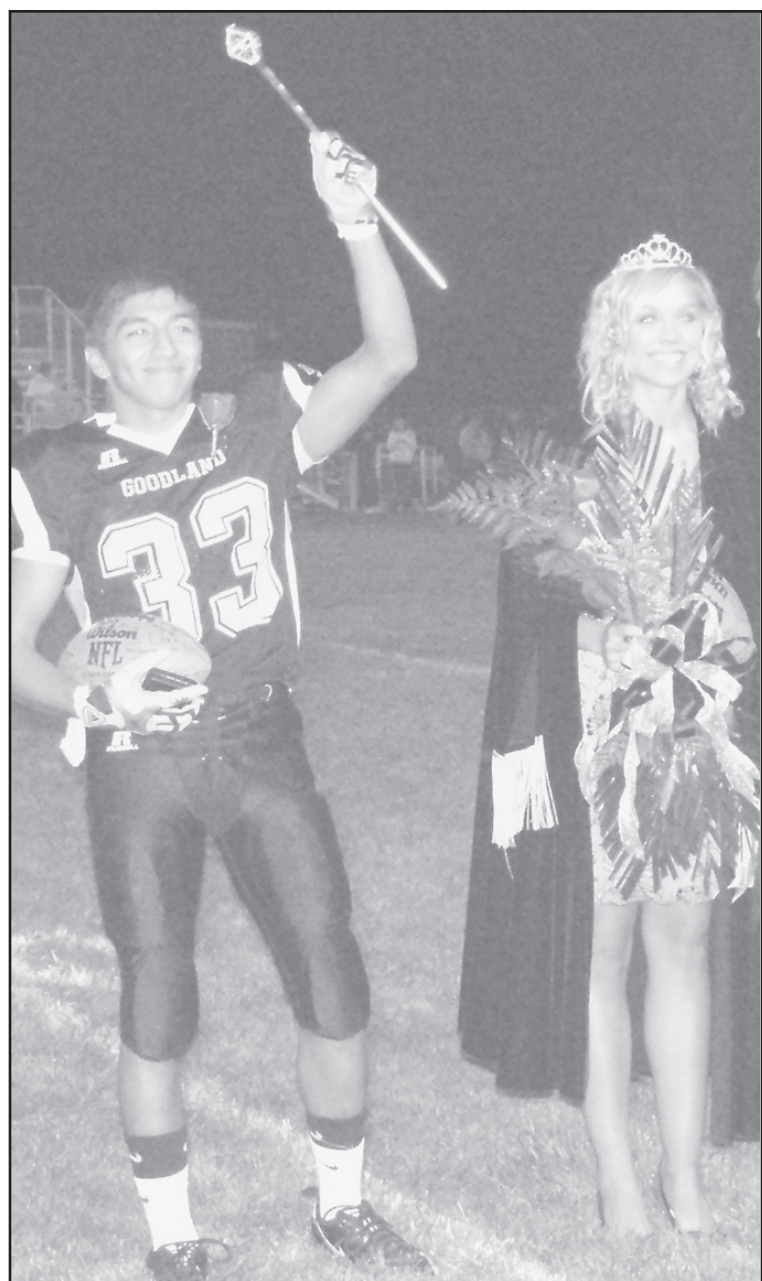

Kale Arnberger scored on a 15 yard run on a 7-play 65 yard drive for the Eagles. The Eagles went for 2-points to make it 38-22.

That would be the final score of the night as Goodland beats Colby 38-22. The game ended about 11:30 p.m.

The Cowboys finished with 441 yards of total offense, 242 rushing and 169 yards passing, 25 first downs, 7 of 15 on third down, and 2 for 2 on fourth down.

Colby had 258 yards of offense, 227 on the ground and 31 passing, 10 first downs, 2 of 8 on third down, and 1 of 2 on fourth.

Bellamy completed 14 of 24 passing, 169 yards, 1 touchdown, and 1 interception. He carried 24 times for 124 yards.

Pearson ran the ball 11 times for 46 yards and 2 touchdowns. Wilkens had 7 receptions for 80 yards and a touchdown. Pearson caught 4 balls for 66 yards.

Arnberger was 3 of 12 for 31 yards and 2 interceptions by Garth Helton and Dillon Trachsel.

Flanigan rushed 11 times for 82 yards. Parker carried 5 times for 52 yards and 2 touchdowns.

Corbin Stevens was the leading receiver for Colby with just 1 catch for 34 yards.

Cowboy running back Chris Bustillos was crowned Homecoming King alongside Goodland volleyball player Jade Herl. The homecoming dance was postponed and will be held on Friday night.

The Cowboys 4-2, are at home on Friday when they start district play against the 4-0 Norton Blue Jays.

The win against Colby was the first win at Cowboy Stadium since October of 2008.

Cowgirls lose to Oberlin, beat Atwood
