

The Wichita Children's Theatre Professional Touring Company in its production of "The Three Billy Goats Gruff."

Association production at schools

The Wichita Children's Theatre Professional Touring Company will present "The Three Billy Goats Gruff" at Hoxie, Winona and Sharon Springs schools on Tuesday, and St. Francis and Quinter schools on Wednesday.

This musical version of the well-known tale, written by Kevin M. Reese, tells the story of three billy goats who want to get across the bridge to eat the green grass on the other side, but there's a problem. There's a grouchy bully of a troll under the bridge who is determined not to let them pass! They do finally get across, but only after some quick thinking---and they make a new friend in the process. The goats discover that cooperation and teamwork are the best ways to get the end result you want, and the troll teaches them the magic work---"Please!" They also find out that just because someone looks or acts different, it doesn't mean he can't be a friend.

The Wichita Children's Theatre Professional Touring Company performs from September through February in Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas. The Company is professional in every facet, complete with storybook sets, costumes and props appropriate for each production. The performances are sponsored locally by Western Plains Arts Association, with additional funding from the Kansas Arts Commission. The performance times and locations are as follows: 7:30 a.m. (Mountain Time) on Tuesday at Hoxie, 10:45 a.m. (Mountain Time) at Winona and 2:15 Sharon Springs, on Wednesday 8:30 a.m. (Mountain Time) at St. Francis and 12:30p.m. (Mountain Time) at Quinter.

Fiddling family to perform at Oberlin

The Kid Fiddlers, a family group of exciting musicians, will perform at the Oberlin Gateway Center at 6:30 p.m. (Mountain Time) on Saturday, Oct. 23.

The group, from Henderson, Nev., has been amazing audiences around the world since 2001. They combine a mastery of over a dozen instruments, impeccable vocal harmonies, fantastic clogging and charming humor. It is a family friendly show and is suitable for all ages.

It is said that when "Mom" takes the stage with her five amazingly talented kids (ages 7-19), audiences are spellbound. What makes these kids extra special is that they don't just play music for fun or to entertain, they are using their talents to raise money for important causes including the American Cancer Society and the American Diabetes Association.

The family includes Toni Jackson, Mom; Tess, 18; Grayden, 15; Mikinzie, 13; Zach, no age given, and Skyler, 7.

This is an Oberlin Arts and Humanities Commission season ticket event or $10 for adults; and $5 for students grades 1-12 at the door.

For information call Ella Betts, (785) 475-3557 or Mary Henzel (785) 470-0218.
