- The 4-H goal is to help children become self-directing contributing members of society.
- 4-H uses a variety of delivery structures such as clubs, camps, informal groups and enrichment programs.

- 4-H relies on local determination of programs to fit the specific needs of the boys, girls, their families and the community.
- 4-H is a family affair, which includes the parent child relationship and the extended family of community and state.

- 4-H is fun for both child and adult
- 4-H is a unique blend of government, private business and volunteers working together to broaden the horizons of youth.

Classes 4-H'ers may participate in:

- Livestock rules
