Velda O. Smith

Velda O. Smith, 90, Goodland, retired Cheyenne County teacher, died Tuesday, April 12, 2011 at her home.

She was born Dec. 10, 1920, to Jess and Evangeline Clark in Cheyenne County and was raised on a farm. She graduated from Haigler High School and attended a teacher's college in Chadron, Neb.

Mrs. Smith started teaching in California when she met James A. Smith. When he was discharged from the Navy in 1945, they moved back to Kansas and married. They lived with her parents for a short time before the couple bought a neighboring farm.

She helped on the farm with milking, tending the chickens and other tasks, but a teacher was needed in the district's one-room school houses and she agreed to teach at West 10. Mrs. Smith taught in several one-room school houses in Cheyenne County and the couple also ran a truck stop in Haigler, Neb. She went back to her last county school and in 1966 she took a teaching job in McDonald. She taught second grade form many years, as well as summer school.

After retirement she liked to go on the truck with her husband when he hauled cattle and see the countryside. She attended her grandkids graduations and special events.

In 2002 Mrs. Smith and her husband decided it was time to move closer to her son at Goodland. They were in the process of moving when she became ill in April. She spent a total of five months in the hospital, three of which were in swing-bed at Goodland.

Her grandsons A.J. and Garrett spent much of their time at granny's house.

Preceding her in death were her husband in 2005; her son-in-law, Royce Stute in 2006; and her parents.

Survivors include a son, Kevin (Chelli) Smith of Kanorado; two daughters, Marsha Anne Stute and Jamie Gay (Lane) Ashley; a granddaughter, three grandsons; and eight great-grandchildren.

Services were on Monday, April 18, 2011, at the Spellman-Schmidt Funeral Home, 427 Adams Street, Wray, Colo. 80758 with Pastor Dustin Petz officiating and burial in the Haigler Cemetery in Haigler, Neb.

Memorials may be made to the Goodland Senior Center, 208 W. 15, Goodland.
