Goodland graduate to attend academy

Goodland graduate Lexi David is one of 28 college students from Kansas chosen for the Kansas Collegiate Law Enforcement Academy on Sunday to Wednesday, May 15-18. The academy is held by the Kansas Highway Patrol at their training facility in Salina. David is a freshman at Colby Community College.

Criminal justice students from many of the colleges and universities in the state apply for the program. It offers students a chance to experience training academy life before entering a career in law enforcement.

Students must complete an application and physical before the event.

Colby College Department Director Dr. Michael Thompson and Dean of Academics Joyce Washburn nominated David for the academy. She was sponsored by Rod Taylor, Thomas County Sheriff.

"This is the fifth year that one of our students has been chosen for the academy," said Thompspon.
