Goodland man on commission

Governor Sam Brownback recently announced appointments to several state boards and commissions including appointing a Goodland man to the Kansas Midwestern Higher Education Commission.

Short

Dick Short of Goodland was appointed by Gov. Brownback to the Kansas Midwestern Higher Education Commission.

"I appreciate the willingness of these Kansans to give of their time, energy, and talent. With their help, we will make our great state even better," Gov. Brownback said.

The Kansas Midwestern Higher Education Commission was created by the Midwestern Higher Education Compact. The purpose of the Compact is to provide greater higher education opportunities and services in the Midwestern region, with the aim of furthering regional access to, research in and choice of higher education for the citizens residing in the several states which are parties to this Compact. The Commission consists of five resident members of each state.

Short is the president of Short & Son, a family trucking business and president of Century Feeders, Inc., a 10,000 cattle feedlot. Short served more than 25 years on the Goodland Board of Education including three stints as the board president. Short is a graduate of Kansas Wesleyan University with a B.A. in Business Administration.

States in the Midwestern Higher Education Compact along with Kansas include Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota and Wisconsin.

Hospital to provide wigs, hats

Area cancer patients are encouraged to visit the new Loan Closet at Goodland Regional Medical Center, 220 W. 2nd St., to get free wigs, hats, turbans and breast prostheses. This new service is located in the Oncology Department at GRMC.

"These products are very important to people with cancer because they help increase a patient's self-esteem and provide a renewed self-confidence during and after treatment," said Heather West, American Cancer Society community manager. "We want folks to know about this new service, so we can help local patients deal with their cancer diagnosis."

Staff will assist patients in choosing and fitting the products in the Loan Closet. "When you look good, you feel better. And when a cancer patient feels better, you participate better in your treatment," West said.

For more information on the Loan Closet, or if you would like to donate a wig or hat, please contact Brenda Cunningham in the Oncology De-
